Santas holiday hoedown

Santa Claus looks good in a cowboy hat. The question was, will Santa get through at Christmas? (Dwight) Izac an elf, steps up to the microphone to say his lines during the holiday program. First-graders sing one of the social songs at Santa's Holiday Hoedown. The second-graders certainly knew what the words and deeds were about the songs. The Little Jays' Preschool Holiday Program took place on December 11, 2017. The Little Jays practiced singing and dancing. On the evening of the program they were ready with four songs, among them: Winter Mittens Colors, Jingle Bells Opposites, The Reindeer Pokey and The Christmas Action Song. They have done a wonderful job for the crowd of parents, teachers and friends. Half-time preschool includes: Abilene Moore, Bertie Meyerkorth, Daxxyn Moore, Eli Meyerkorth, Elli Moreno, Frank Kroeger, Grant Miller-Unruh, Jakleigh Burke, Kamryn Lair, Kinsley Nuckolls, Lucy Ottmann, Nash Schomburg, Piper McKenney, Raelynn Stoner, Fenix Green and Greyson Sperber.
