Astrology cafe natal chart report

Cafe Astrology Free charts Create your birth or natal chart with chartwheel and report with interpretations. Once you've created a natal chart, you can select a compatibility report or relationship and projections. Go beyond your Sun sign with this service chart, which also includes compatibility charts with ratings, horoscopes, and transits for any date in the past, present and future, all based on dates of birth, year and place. If you have a time of birth, so much the better! A quick Link Birthday Chart Report Welcome to the Cafe Astrology Free Report section If you've already created the charts they're listed here. If not, create a new chart. You've added the following charts (maximum 10, but you can remove unused charts): Profile 93034571 PIN- Take note of your profile number and PIN if you want to log back in after clearing the cache or after switching to another device. Create a new delete chart and profile log into your existing profile with a profile number and pin code Please note that you don't need to log in to access the charts unless you change your computer or device. The PIN is automatically filled after the first chart is created. Please note your profile and PIN only if you want to keep these birth data sets. The diagram data is stored in the cookie in the browser. If you clear the cache, this data will be deleted. However, if you take note of your profile numbers and PIN directly below the chart list, you can log into that profile with those numbers to get the chart data. It's also useful for extracting stored data on other devices. Please note that these diagrams are stored for convenience, but we cannot guarantee that they will be stored permanently. It is always wise to keep your data anonymous using the original or home name in the name field. About Cafe Astrology Free Report Site Following free reports offered by Cafe Astrology. The first option, the Birth Chart, gives you your natal graph, easy-to-read lists of the positions of planets and houses in your chart, as well as aspects between planets and points. There are interpretations of these positions, many of which are our original interpretations. After reading the report, you can explore your ont chart further with our astrological articles and features. Once you've created the chart, you'll be able to run a horoscope/transit report and/or a compatibility report from links found at the top and bottom of the birth report. Returning to this page, you'll find a list of any charts you've created (see above) that you can save or on its page. There are also report options for unknown birth times below, but if you know the time of birth (s), your reports will include more factors if you choose them from links links the top or bottom of the natal chart report page. Note that if you want to save your birth data, it makes sense to use the usual Create A Chart feature and choose Unknown Time of Birth. Bring birth data here to get a natal chart, the position of the planets (and more) in the natal chart, and brief descriptions of those positions. You probably know your sun sign. This report will also show your moon sign, Mercury sign, your Ascendant if you know your time of birth, and more. Announce your date of birth and the date of your lover (or potential lover) for a short report on compatibility, with interpretations of how your planets interact with each other, and scores. If you know when you're born and want a more complete compatibility report, first select The Birth Chart, create a report, and scroll down to add a second person. See how the positions of the planets today affect your personal chart. These horoscopes are based on your date of birth, not just your sun sign. No birth time is required for this report. If you know when you're born, create a birth chart first, scroll to the bottom of the report, and then select the transit report. See the impact of the planets on your personal chart over the next 14 days. No birth time is required for this report. If you know when you're born, create a birth chart first, scroll to the bottom of the report, and then select the transit report. Get our comprehensive astrology reports here. Profile numbers and PIN addresses store birth data for your convenience and are not an official account system because they are not associated with an email address. If you haven't tagged down your profile and contact numbers, and you only see a new profile number with an empty PIN, you may have cleaned the cookies or you're on a new device. You just need to start over by re-engagement birth data, and you can generate the same free reports - as much as you want for each data set chart - as you did before. It is better not to rely on this system to store birth data permanently as it is not currently designed this way. On using this graphics service since 2002, Cafe Astrology has offered this free report section for people interested in exploring their astrology charts further. Please note that the use of this service is not related. It has always been free to use and there are no plans to change that! I ask you to try to keep the saved charts low to reduce the load on the server and cost. This will help keep the site running smoothly. This helps to avoid clicking links and forming buttons too The firewall temporarily blocks bot-like activity and you're better off when it assumes you're human! Changes and updates In 2015, this free chart service for the convenience of users was added to the save feature. This saves you from re-entering birth data every time you want to create a report for that data. Data. You prefer to avoid saving the function and you prefer to enter the birth data of each visit, you may want to consider accessing the site through the browser incognito or you can delete the data at the top of the page (indivisible charts or all at once) at the end of your visit. Please note that profiles are not associated with an email address and are thus more anonymous than regular accounts. It is always a good idea to enter a pseudonym or original (or nothing) as a title for each new entry. Names are not counted in astrological interpretations in any way, as would be the case with numerological reports. By continuing to use this site, you agree to use the session cookies. They only work to preserve diagrams and preferences and serve no other purpose. In December 2018, I moved the site to a new, more powerful server and changed the site to a responsive layout that was a long time coming. The content stays the same - the only thing that's changed is the ability of pages to adapt to the smaller device screen. If you encounter any errors or problems, please let me know astro@cafeastrology.com. In March 2019, I added the ability to use the pronoun they in a free chart report because of reader suggestions. I'm very happy with this addition! I tried my best to incorporate this pronoun correctly into the texts, but I have to assume that I made a few typos (such as is/has/not when it should be/eat/no). If you come across a specific typo, and if you have time, please let me know astro@cafeastrology.com. For those who want to change their pronoun, I'm sorry, but I currently don't have an edit option, making it necessary to re-enter the chart. It may be worth noting as well that as I updated the pronouns, I made a few minor edits to the surrounding texts. I recently also added a print option for some free reports on the reader's suggestion because the pages were not formatted well for printing. With this option, most of any part of the report that you prefer not to print or save can be removed. It also works to download reports as PDFs. The buttons for printing and saving reports are at the bottom of the generated report page. In June 2019, I changed the label for the Moon's North Node. It was previously labeled as Asc Node for the Rising Node, but this point is most commonly known as the Northern Knot these days, and too many people confuse it with Rising. Although this is a slight change in the label, I feel it is important because it has been brought to my attention that people thought the site gives them variable results, sometimes on the actual Ascendant and other cases the Asc Node value, and the conclusion is wrong that the calculator was unstable. This was probably an even bigger issue before I changed the label for the first home with I on I Asc last year. I Am I very happy to make this clarification. Depending on the device you're using, locations with this city name will fall automatically or you may need to click on the arrow at the end of the selection to see the full list. Choose the exact location of your birth from the list. For example, if your birthplace is Dallas, Texas, try entering Dallas only. The list will appear and you can choose the right location for Dallas. As soon as you're happy with your choice, click the Dispatch button. IMPORTANT: Double check your data by sending an email reports@cafeastrology.com with full birth information. Please let us know why you are writing (example: Double birth data check). We can help you with time zones if necessary, as there are some questions regarding the accuracy of time zone information in all astrology software programs. It's a good idea to check that the time zone shift is accurate. The field is not sure Sometimes a time zone appears. Some time zones in the database are either unknown or subject to the special questions or exceptions outlined in this article, Historical Time Zone Issues. If, after selecting a location and clicking Send software updates the same screen, you will see a new field under a time field called The Time zone is not sure. In this case, you may need to adjust the numerical value in the field. If the value is correct, just click Send again to get to your report. If you are unsure, send us an email on reports@cafeastrology.com with full birth data for help. It is important not to change the q/- entry. Keep in mind that the program converts local time into UT, not the other way around. An example of a watch zone is unsure of the date and place going on in the late forties and through the fifties in Illinois, when the odd law was in effect against CDT records once in CST. The Not Sure watch area allows you to select -6 for CST or -5 for CDT. The article, which is referred to a little higher, gives more advice for ambiguous historical time zones. Please also pay special attention if the body is at the 0 degree and 00 minute mark. In this case, the program may have rounded, and the sign could actually be 29 degrees and 59.5 (or more) from the previous sign and technically in that sign! If you are in this situation, please email reports@cafeastrology.com with birth data for confirmation. Do you have any questions about chart service? See also a video instruction on how to use this Reports section of the site here. Unknown Birthdays: Checking from Time Unknown instructs the program to leave out ascendant and home positions in the report, as they cannot be determined with any accuracy without the time of birth. For most users, there is nothing special to do - the report is produced without the time of sensitive data. For those who are interested in knowing the possible range of signs and degrees on a certain day, read on. Time in the birth field is used to calculate the position of the Sun, Moon and planets. If you are interested in using the best averages for the day, you can enter noon. If you are interested in knowing the possible range, you can mark the positions of the planets at 00:01, and then at 23:59, which will give you this range. On many days, the moon can be one of two signs, as the moon changes signs about every 2-1/2 days. Less likely, but still possible are the changes of signs with the Sun and other planets (they may be on the threshold). Again, you can check the range of possible positions. However, without the time of birth, you may not know the exact positions with any certainty. The diagram data is stored in the cookie in the browser.
