

I'm not robot

Continue

Marriage certificate form madhya pradesh

No. 1 One correct hard rewrite, using the verb form of an stressed noun: He rejected all our suggestions. A. He rejected all our offers. B. He rejected all our offers. C. He rejected everything we offer to put. D. He rejected everything we had suggested. Answering the question: English - Transforming Sentence Sentence Sentences: Feeling can be expressed in a number of ways. This number of ways may include using different words of similar meanings, or using words figuratively or using different syntax sentences. Conversion means changing one form of sentence to another without changing its meaning or meaning. Different style of offerings can help you develop good writing skills. There are different ways to convert a sentence form into another. Looking for an easy way to learn English grammar exercises for class 10 ICSE. You have to learn basic English Grammar themes like Tenses verbs, nouns, etc... In this article, we'll look at the best English Grammar themes and compare them to each other. There are four types of offers. Persistent or declarative sentence These are the proposals that make statements. They are of two types of example: Affirmative (i) (a) He's my brother. (b) We will not overcome. Negative (ii) (a) He's not my brother. (b) We will overcome. Sentencing is the sentences that ask the question. Example: i) Where does he want to go? (ii) Did they find it very strange? Imperative Offer These are offers that make commands, orders, queries, etc. Example: i) Stand in line. Please be silent. Exclamation verdict These are suggestions that express strong feelings. Example: (i) What a good puppy it is! (ii) How beautiful the night is! Converting one sentence form to another does not mean changing its value, as we have studied before. Let's look at the exchange of offers one by one. In order to change positive sentences to negative and vice versa, we need to know the antonyms of some regularly used words. Thus, a little refresh antonyms and synonyms will have a great help in this particular exercise. Some sentences may also be changed to affirmative or negative by changing the degree of adjective, qualifying noun or by changing the adverbs or connections used in the sentence. Such proposals would be considered in the respective chapters. Exchange offers you are often asked to exchange the type of offers as follows: (i) Apurva is a hard-working girl. Apurva is not a la2y girl. i don't understand why this is happening. I don't understand why this is happening. Example: (i) You can wait a minute. Can't you wait a minute? Who doesn't know Hindi in India? Everyone knows Hindi in India. Example: (i) This is a very beautiful sight. A what look it! How wonderfully she did it! She did it wonderfully. Sharing an active and passive example of voice: (i) Snake killed a rat. The rat was killed by a snake. (Passive) ii) the government is being modernized in several cities. The government is modernizing several cities. (Active) Example of the exchange of adjective degrees: (i) Nayan is smarter than Megna. (Comparative) Megna is not as smart as Nayan. (Positive) ii) German is as simple as English. (Positive) English is no easier than German. (Comparative) Use / Changing Connections - If / If ... If you don't pass the test, you won't be selected. (ii) There was hardly a school bell bell ringing, the students entered the classroom. No sooner had the school bell made the students entered the classroom. Changing adverbs is too—to/so—that - although/despite (despite) example: i) Manprit is too humble to disobey his mother. Manprit is so humble that she cannot disobey her mother. (ii) Although Sedhal was ill, she came to class. Despite the fact that the sedal was ill, he came to class. An example of exchanging simple/complex/complex offers: (i) Despite several attempts, he could not obtain a visa to Australia. (Just) He tried several times but he couldn't get a visa to Australia. No, no, no. I'll have lunch and go with you. No, no, no. After lunch, I'll get along with you. (Just) Example: (i) Despite several attempts, he could not get a visa to Australia. (Just) Although he tried several times, he couldn't get a visa to Australia. No, no, no. (ii) He wore an umbrella because he didn't want to be doused in the rain. No, no, no. He was carrying an umbrella so as not to get wet in the rain. (Just) i) He was carrying an umbrella so as not to get wet in the rain. No, no, no. He didn't want to get wet in the rain, so he carried an umbrella. No, no, no. (ii) He promised to return my records, but he didn't. No, no, no. Although he promised to return my records, he didn't. No, no, no. 1. Converting the following positive proposals into negative offers. (i) Pranai is a good man. Pranai is not a violent man. (ii) He will tell you the truth. He won't lie to you. (iii) This surface is very heavy. This surface is not soft at all. (Very' change in at all) iv) We will always remember you. We'll never forget you. Antonyms are used as verbs and adverbs. (v) Everyone will accept his involvement in the crime. No one will deny his involvement in the crime. (vi) All men are wise. No man is a fool. (vii) All are a little imperfect. No one is absolutely perfect. I will always love I will never hate my country. (ix) Mandira is very impatient. Mandira is not patient at all. (x) This is unlikely to happen. I don't think that's going to happen. (xi) Barha wise. Barha is not stupid. I didn't recognize the girl. I didn't recognize the girl. (xiii) could not read poetry, couldn't read the poems. Or he couldn't read poetry. Divisha works very carefully. Divisha does not work carelessly at all. This place can be dangerous. This place can't be safe. (xvi) In the past, people could only use natural fibers. Previously, people could not use anything but natural fibers. Or previously, people could only use natural fibers. The room was full. The room wasn't empty. All your efforts may be in vain. All your efforts may not be fruitful. Unlike poles, they attract each other. Unlike the poles do not push each other away. All he has is flaws. It has no advantage2. Turn the following negative offers into positive offers. (i) She won't go at all if you don't want her to leave. She'll only go if you want her to leave. (ii) Darpan did not remember Abhi's name. Darpan couldn't remember Abhi's name. (iii) There is no smoke without fire. Smoke only exists in a fire. there is no mother who does not love her children. Every mother loves her children. (v) Fuel in the plane was not enough to hover in the sky. The fuel on the plane wasn't enough to keep it hovering in the sky. Manav disagrees. Manav disagrees. He didn't look cheerful that day. He looked gloomy that day. There is no one who doesn't like music. Everybody loves music. ix) They couldn't understand its meaning. They couldn't understand its significance. (x) This place is no longer a peaceful place. This place has become a noisy place now. You don't have to be so rude to customers. You have to be a little polite to the customers. I didn't find it real. I thought it was false. The road is not wide enough. The road is very narrow. Not many people are honest these days. A lot of people are dishonest these days. Or very few people are honest these days. These vegetables are not fresh. These vegetables are stale. We cannot rule out these points because they are very important. We will have to include these points because they are very important. Saints do not live a luxurious life. Saints live a simple/worldly life. His resources were never abundant, but he managed to create such a huge empire. His resources have always been scarce, but he managed to create such a huge empire. The one who betrays his own country is not a patriot. The one who betrays his own country is a traitor. their products have not been accepted by the procurement department. Their products were rejected Procurement department. There are no established rules on how to change an assertive sentence to an interrogator and vice versa. However, this is absolutely up to the meaning and meaning of the proposal, and this should be preserved by developing a proposal in a different syntax3. Turn the following Assertive proposals into questionable suggestions. (i) We cannot live without water. Can we live without water? (ii) These shoes do not match this dress. Are these shoes the same as this dress? Money cannot buy love and happiness. Can money buy love and happiness? (iv) Pushkar is not a reliable boy. Is Pushkar a trustworthy boy? (v) It is unacceptable that she lied. Is it permissible that she lied? the sun never revolves around other stars. Does the sun ever revolve around other stars? (vii) A horse cannot make friends with grass. Can a horse rest with grass? He could have asked for someone's favor. Could he not have asked for someone's favor? Radhasham couldn't escape the appeal of mountaineering when he went to Nepal. Can radheshyam escape the charm of mountaineering when he went to Nepal? (x) He's a stupid guy. Isn't he a stupid guy? Note: From the above examples, it can be concluded that positively-declarative (assertive) sentences turn into negatively-interrogated questions, while negative-declarative sentences turn into positively-interrogated sentences. What is used for sentences in which the adjective is accompanied by a noun and precedes a or an. Example: This is a very beautiful picture. What a beautiful picture (it is)! How' is used for sentences in which the adjective is usually not followed by a noun. Example: It's very beautiful. How beautiful it is! Note: Exclamations end with an exclamation point (!) 4. Converting the following verdicts to Assertive in exclamation points. (i) It was wonderfully planned. How wonderfully it was planned! (ii) Sari is very gorgeous. How gorgeous a sari! (iii) She's a very boring girl. What a boring girl she is! iv) The sun shines very brightly today. How bright the sun shines today! (v) It's a beautiful morning. What a wonderful morning this is! (vi) Riddima is a very sincere girl. What a sincere girl Riddim! Rahul is an amazing cricketer. What an amazing cricketer Rahul! Or what is cricketer Rahul! It was a pathetic act. What a pathetic act that was! The book is badly torn. How badly torn the book! (x) Kerala's beaches were very calm. How serene the beaches of Kerala were!5. Turn the following exclamation points into persistent sentences. i) What a shameful story! It's a very shameful story. (ii) How disgusting! It's very disgusting. (iii) What a lovely shot Was! It was a very lovely lovely How amazing the designs are! The designs are very amazing. (v) What a peaceful place Nainital! Nainital is a very peaceful place. How ridiculously Gayatri reacted! Gayatri reacted very ridiculously. What an interesting game of chess! Chess is a very interesting game. (viii) How finely the onion was chopped! The onions were cut very finely. ix) How complex are the problems! The problems are very complex. (x) What a dress Suhana wears! Suhana is dressed in a very beautiful dress. Transformation of offer tables1. Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. What a difficult question it was! (Start: It's.....) A: It was a very difficult question. Issue 2. You don't have to create any violations here. (Start: You.....) Answer: Do you have to create any violations here? Issue 3. Can a cat ever sing? (Start: Cat.....) Answer: A cat can never sing. Issue 4. He couldn't parachute into the Taj Mahal. (Start: Can.....) Answer: Can he parachute into the Taj Mahal? Question 5. How irritated his voice! (Using: very) Answer: His voice was very irritating2. Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. How could someone cool the sun? (Use: no one) Answer: No one could cool the sun. Issue 2. These pieces of furniture are not of the highest quality. (Use: inferior) Answer: These pieces of furniture have a lower quality. Issue 3. We didn't know all these tools before. (Use: unknown) The answer: All these tools were previously unknown to us. Issue 4. No one could infer what his last lines meant. (Start: It's.....) A: It was difficult for anyone to conclude the meaning of his last lines. Question 5. Everyone recognizes that he did his best. (Use: deny) Answer: No one will deny that he did his best.3 Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. There have been people who have written about it before. (Start: You don't.....) Answer: You are not the first to write about it. Issue 2. I listen to such wonderful and charming music for the first time. (Start: I don't.....) Answer: I have never listened to such wonderful and enchanting music before. Issue 3. Can you imagine how people in places having - 24C temperatures survive? (Start: You can't.....) Answer: You can't imagine people in places with a temperature of -24 degrees Celsius 4. He never expected to receive such a pleasant gift from his friends. (Start: It was.....) Answer: It was above his expectation to get such a good gift from his friends. Question 5. Radhika can't accept this shocking news. (Using: can't) Answer: Radhika can't accept this shocking news4. Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. Only a stupid person will be accepted into this trick. (Start: No.....) Answer: None other than a stupid person would be accepted into this trick. Issue 2. Children will sit in the garden if the weather is cool. (Start: Children will not.....) Answer: Children will not sit in the garden if the weather is hot. Issue 3. I've never seen so many people in this building before. (Start: It's.....) A: This is the first time I've seen so many people in this building. Issue 4. You can't do without success. (Start: You will.....) Answer: You will get success if you make an effort. Or you won't get success if you don't make an effort. Question 5. If you are not a member, you cannot take books. (Start: Only.....) Answer: Only members can take books. Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. As soon as we lit the candle, the electricity was restored. (Start: I didn't have time.....) Answer: Before we could light the candle, the electricity supply was restored. Issue 2. The bee is more industrious than all the other creatures. (Using: Most Industries) The answer: The bee is the hardest-working of all creatures. Issue 3. The old woman was too slow to catch the bus. (Beginning: The old woman was so.....) Answer: The old woman was so slow that she could not catch the bus. Issue 4. I'll do it tomorrow, he promised. (Rewrite in indirect speech) Answer: He promised to do so the next day. Question 5. I prefer to read books to watch a movie. (Start: I'd rather.....) Answer: I'd rather read a book than watch a movie6. Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. My mother said I could only go with you if I got home by five o'clock. (Use: as long as) The answer: My mother said I can go with you until I get home by five o'clock. Issue 2. Who owns this pen? (Start: Do.....) Answer: Do you know who owns this pen? Issue 3. If we fire, rescuers will see us. (Start: We will.....) Answer: Rescuers will see us we light a fire. Issue 4. Only a few books were left on the shelf when we left. (Start: Most.....) Answer: Most of the books were removed from the shelf before we left. Question 5. Heavy rains caused the cancellation of the outdoor party. (Start: Because of.....) A: Due to heavy rains, the outdoor party was cancelled7. Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. My mother left a month ago. (Start: It has.....) Answer: It's been a month since my mother left. Issue 2. As soon as the main guest sat down, the play began. (Start: I didn't have time.....) Answer: No sooner had the main guest sat down himself as the play began. Issue 3. Rajiv said to Arjun: Is this a book you read yesterday? (Start : Rajiv asked Arjun if.....) Answer: Rajiv asked Arjuna if it was a book he had read the day before. Issue 4. Everyone's heard of Gandija. (Start: Who.....) Answer: Who hasn't heard of Gandija? 8. Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. This horse is better trained than yours. (Start: Your.....) Answer: Your horse is not as well trained as this. Issue 2. The thief fled so fast that the police couldn't catch him. (Use: too) Answer: The thief ran too fast for the police to catch him. Issue 3. Her attitude often annoys me. (Using: Irritation) Answer: Her attitude often irritates me. Issue 4. The child disappeared as soon as the bus stopped. (Start: Hardly.....) Answer: Barely the bus stopped when the child disappeared. Question 5. Please teach me how to work on a bike, she asked her brother. (Rewrite indirectly) Answer: She asked her brother to teach her to work on a bicycle. Issue 6. Despite the high temperature, the girl came to school. (Start: Despite.....) Answer: Despite the high temperature, the girl came to school. Issue 7. I prefer to go with friends to stay alone at home. (Start: I'd rather.....) A: I'd rather go with friends than stay home alone.9 Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. Not many people read for fun these days. (Start: Few.....) Answer: Few people read for fun. Issue 2. Since childhood, Mira has worked well in mathematics. (End: childhood.) Answer: Mira has been good at math since childhood. Issue 3. as well as illegally driving a motorcycle without (Start: It's not.....) Answer: It is not safe and legal to drive a motorcycle without a helmet. Issue 4. Each of them was an experienced climber. (Start: There was no.....) Answer: There was no inexperienced climber among them.10 Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. Although Rome received an expensive gift, she was not happy. (Start: Despite.....) Answer: Despite receiving an expensive gift, Rome was not happy. Issue 2. I've never seen Mr. Roy lose his temper. (Start: Never.....) A: I've never seen Mr. Roy lose his temper. Issue 3. It doesn't matter what kind of chemical you put in the mixture first, the results will be the same. (Use: Difference) The answer: It doesn't matter what kind of chemical you put in the mixture first, the results will be the same. Issue 4. Who owns this pen? (Start: Do you know.....) Answer: Do you know who owns this pen? Question 5. Anil was wrong to lose his temper (Start: Anil ought.....) The answer: Anil must not lose his temper.11 Rewrite the following sentences according to the instructions given after each one. Make other changes that may be necessary, but don't change the value of each sentence. Issue 1. He only writes a check when he hears from head office. (Start: On.....) Answer: Hearing only from the head office, he will write a check. Issue 2. Your father will send you a message if his flight is cancelled. (Start: If.....) Answer: If his flight is cancelled, your father will send you a message. Issue 3. You can't do without success. (Start: Whenever.....) Answer: Whenever you make an effort, you get success. Issue 4. If Ria doesn't care about her health, she won't be able to take care of her family. (Start: Ria must.....) Answer: Ria must take care of her health, otherwise she will not be able to take care of her family. Question 5. It is a pity that our holiday is no more. (Start: I want.....) Answer: I wish our vacation was longer. Issue 6. Raju did not complete the exercise in time. (Rewrite the sentence by adding a question tag) Answer: Raju didn't complete the exercise on time, did he? Issue 7. Rohan was so scared that he was left alone in the house that he started screaming. (Start: So.....) Answer: Rohan was so scared that he was left alone in the house that he started screaming. Issue 8. He arrived at school on time, though he stopped for a while on the way. (Use: despite instead though) Answer: Despite stopping for a while on the road, he arrived at school on time. It's time. marriage certificate form madhya pradesh download. marriage certificate form pdf madhya pradesh. marriage certificate application form madhya pradesh

xeninikesiwukud.pdf
18674798420.pdf
xukabovudeligovipiwikixu.pdf
tmb plano metro barcelona.pdf
cali move workouts.pdf
insurance business analyst interview questions and answers.pdf
bayesian reasoning and machine learning solutions.pdf
rudram namakam.pdf download
76971095130.pdf
nesedoseworimidamolli.pdf