

Field Internship with Jon Ossoff's
Democratic Campaign for U.S. Senate

Democratic nominee for U.S. Senate, Jon Ossoff, is accepting Fall interns for his campaign here in Georgia.

The campaign is seeking interns to assist with organizing efforts. You will have the opportunity to work with senior-level staffers and learn multiple areas of the campaign. Interns must be able to work a minimum of 10 hours per week, with flexible schedules permitted. Intern work is remote and interns can work from any time zone.

Interns will have the opportunity for growth and advancement. Interns will hone skills in voter and volunteer contact and learn the method behind campaign field events and getting people out to vote. You will also have the opportunity to interact with staff members over Zoom and work closely with other interns through our team system.

Job qualifications include having an interest in Democratic politics and the ability to manage tight deadlines in a fast-paced working environment. We are looking for people with strong writing, computing, and customer service skills. Attention to detail is a must. Candidates need to have patience, a positive attitude, and the ability to work with a diverse group of individuals. Interns must use discretion and common sense when dealing with sensitive or timely information.

Salary: Unpaid. Course credit available

Location: 100% Remote.

If interested, please apply online using a non-school email via <https://forms.gle/M3WFpxy7FACVkJRqA8>

This internship opportunity is available to qualified candidates who are full-time or part-time students without regard to their race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, ethnicity, age, physical or mental disability, veteran status, or any other characteristic prohibited by state or local law.