I pre-ordered it, in January, at the time of her birthday, and it arrived today. She has asked me several times in recent weeks if I have not forgotten the book.

..... It's about getting it to her now (we don't live in the same city...). However, I would like to make a comment about the sticker on the front of the dust jacket, which is Bonus Poster Inside; this is somewhat misleading (I saw and couldn't find!), so I checked the article here on the site), as it is actually the back of the dust jacket! Not much benefit for those who like to take care of their books and therefore would not remove the dust jacket from the book.... Too bad as I'm sure she would have liked to pin the picture on her bedroom wall. . . . A double dust jacket could easily have offered this possibility. Maybe the publishers can bear this in mind?! The 9/11 report for each American On 5 December 2005, the 9/11 Commission gave an excellent overview of the tragic event in graphic form. 23 Jan 2017 Jacobson and Colon previously collaborated on other books on the 9/11 report and the War on Terror, and Jacobson's thorough summary of Aug 22, 2006 The commission's 9/11 report is arguably the most readable federal committee report in history, but most Americans have never read it. Alarmed by this sad fact, veteran comic book creators Sid Jacobson and Colon creates a graphical version of the report that makes its results indelible. 20 May 2010 THE 9/11 REPORT by Sid Jacobson A Graphic Adaptation The book contains the sober finding of the 9/11 Commission that the Invasion of the 9/11 Report is a graphic adaptation of the final report of the National National exists as a (relatively) easy-to-read summary of the Commission's full 9/11 report. The 9/11 report: a graphical adjustment. Summary: A graphic novel from the 9/11 Commission report shows the Commission's findings as of 11 September 2006 The Commission spent almost three years gathering evidence and drafting the report. The 9/11 report sold more than a million copies, but was considered too voluminous and a little too dry for the average American. That's why Sid Jacobson and Ernie Colon worked together to create The 9/11 Report: A Graphic Adaptation. 28 Feb 2017 A graphic novel based on the real-world investigation of the graphic adaptation of Jacobson and Colon's 576-page summary, which also collaborated on The 9/11 Report: a Graphic Adaptation, Summary.
