

July 6,
14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Here I am to Serve!

Believe it or not I have been living in this wonderful and welcoming town of Wheatland for three months. I have met and known a lot of people not just here in our Church community but people in Wheatland and Chugwater. I have met and known a lot of people in the Golf course, in the street while walking, and in the stores. I am so grateful for your welcoming and acceptance because you make my life a little bit easier. With that, I want to say THANK YOU on behalf of my parents in Vietnam. Anytime I talk to them on the phone during weekend, they always ask me how I am doing in a new parish and how people are treating me in a new place. Don't worry, I always tell them, "You are Aaawesooome."

My dear people: I just want to put this message in front of you. I am here to serve you because this is the reason why I left my whole family and my home country to come here in 2008. I came here in 2008 as a seminarian and then later on I was ordained a priest in 2015 as a priest of Christ to serve you as Jesus says, "the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve" (Matthew 20:28). As a priest of Christ, I am called to follow the foot-prints of my master Jesus Christ to serve you, your families, your friends, and your loved ones.

As I shared with you before, St. Patrick's is my first parish and I am the pastor first time in my priesthood. I am so excited to meet and know you as well as your families more and more in the days to come. You know where I live, where I work, and how to find me through phone calls or personal visits. I am so grateful and thankful to God who gives me YOU so that I can serve as I come here "to serve, not to be served."

I hope you will have a wonderful and
