Use the best hashtags to give your posts more visibility really, unlike other apps that usually stop working because social networks block their access, here are not talked about any shady practice. The app just offers us a bunch of hashtags that can be used to get more visibility when we post something. These hashtags are sorted into categories, so if we want to post something about food, animals, technology or any other concept, we only have to go to the category in question and choose a specific subcategory. For example, if we wanted to post about cats, we would get to the animals and then to the cats. Then we have to copy the hashtags and add them to our post. We should also note that the app offers us the ability to create our own individual categories.
