AEH BOARDING FEE LIST

- Strangles is recommended but not required
- Horse owner will provide AEH with current vaccination information and bring horse into compliance with AEH's schedule at horse owner's expense.
- All horses will be kept on Amado Equine's deworming schedule. Horses will be dewormed upon arrival to bring horse into compliance with AEH's schedule. Horse owner will be responsible for all deworming expenses. We encourage owners to do fecal egg count testing to minimize deworming. This is offered in house for your convenience.
- Proof of negative Coggins required for all horses arriving from out of state. Amado Equine recommends all horses have a Coggins test done annually.
- Routine and emergency care at the ranch is attended by two mobile veterinary practices:
  - Reata Equine Veterinary Group. 520-794-1446
  - Jackpot Veterinary Center. 520-999-3888
  - Other veterinarians welcome for routine and/or emergency care.
- Other equine emergencies will be transported to Tucson to Jackpot Veterinary Center or to Gilbert Equine Hospital in Phoenix and tended to by the on call veterinarian.
- LIABILITY RELEASE forms to be signed by horse owner, family members, and each of his or her guests
- Horse owner resumes full responsibility for all equipment stored at the stable.
- Horse owner agrees to pay all bills incurred while at Amado Equine Hacienda, including but not limited to training, vet and shoeing expenses. All expenses incurred will be billed in addition to board. The horse owner shall be personally liable for the cost of any care, such as (but not limited to) veterinary care for the horse, and shall pay all charges promptly.
- Farrier care is mandatory for equine health. If horse owner fails to arrange for hoof care Amado Equine will arrange to have your horse trimmed or shod every six weeks or as needed. Horse owner will be responsible for all farrier expenses.
  - Farriers at Amado Equine:
    - Roger Harris 520-429-3565
    - Brian Bishop 520-429-0087
    - Eddie McKenzie 520-981-6263 (Annette McKenzie – schedules for Eddie)
