Puppy Power Planems for Benjamin Bulldog . 357Ye Puppy Power Plenums is a drop-in kit for Benjamin Bulldogs that increases the air capacity of its bulldog stock 340 cc reservoir to 160 CCs. Read on... New! Pitbull regulated Reservoir KiTThis kits include everything you need to regulate your stock or modified bulldog. With 4500 PSI Phil, you can expect 18 regulated shots with a stock bulldog, or 11 regulated shots at the Bulldogs with transfer Port Power modifications. The kit comes preinstalled and the Huma regulator sets at a maximum pressure of 2700 psi, or it can be adjusted for your glasses.... Read the new Pitbull AKC Regulated 357d Powered Kinetic Dog! Pitbull AKC 357 was built in response to Bulldogs owners that wanted a regulated rifle with a large capacity reservoir and the option of using cylindrical moderators such as DonnyFL. The length of the Bulldog remains the same as the stock, plus with our 4500 PSI BlueTick shroud length huma regulated reservoir. Huma Regulator is set to 2700 psi, and with a 4500 psi filling, you can expect up to 6 regulated shots for super accurate big games and varmint hunting. READ MOREThe Priest Pump Charging Assist Device Priest Pump RTI Priest is a rugged 3D printed charging-assist device for airgun. This device will turn your side-cocking RTI priest into a smooth pump-action airgun for super quick palette loading and rapid follow-up shots. Pitbull HP was made the longest, heaviest and most accurate round by High Ark Hunter which possibly fit into factory bulldog magazine could. Made specifically for made Airgun, you won't find anywhere in this round for sale, but right here! New! Bluetic tube shroud-length reservoir Bluetic tube is a shroud-length, high-pressure reservoir for Benjamin Bulldog that not only gives you the benefit of increasing the amount of air, but also allows you to install cylindrical moderators after the market. Blumatic tubes will also be a good choice when you want to add huma regulator to your construction and keep the length of stock. More INFOBULLY tube factory lengths stock in 20/24 aluminum reservoirs (4 available) when you want to go safely beyond the 3000 PSI in your bulldog, but don't want to expand the reservoir's previous stock. These 21 tube bulldogs have the same length as the factory reservoir and allow you to add our mega or any other aftermarket moderators that are compatible. Now buy high performance barrel breech o-rings Our O-rings are made from 90 duo woven-en-nitril material, while factory rings are 70 or less. A better, stricter sealing velocity with bolt probe increases and improves performance, especially with heavy slugs that demand the most pressure behind them. The 8 high performance O-rings in each pack the Pitbull Power Spring gives your Benjamin Bulldog an increased strength capabilities and a comprehensive degree of hammer adjustment when tuning your rifle. Chrome silicon steel material has a high tensile strength and the stock hammer retains its flexibility longer than spring. Includes a custom size ABS Spring Guide. Just leave it and start tuning your rifle! Benjamin Bulldog Handles Original Charging Only $10! Check out this video on how we turn a customer's realtree bulldog into pitbull in a project drawn from out of the box! All Pitbull moderators are now available in Realtree Extra®! We are now introducing all our moderators by 3M with the option of Realtree Extra™ Vinyl Wrap. This official realtree adhesive is an ideal match for vinyl hydro-dip film that Benjamin uses. If you already own a pitbull moderator, we'll soon be offering a do-it-yourself camo kit to upgrade the look of your Realtree Extra™ Bulldogs. Stay tuned! New product! Benjamin bulldog gets a much needed upgrade courtesy of 5-shot magazine Matt Modding Ingenuity. Stock Magazine has modified to receive an O ring that intersects each chamber, holding bullets in place and preventing them from ripping around in the area while hunting and loading. The O-ring also stops round in the chamber before falling out, a royal pain in the butt if you've ever experienced it! Turn your stock bulldog trigger unit into pitbull artist, trade in your original components for cash discounts and save $$! The stock trigger unit at Benjamin Bulldogs is not only heavy (3.5-4 lbs!) it also has plenty of first stage stiffness and second stage drag. The parts are continuously manufactured with different hard-metal finishes that can affect your overall accuracy and shooter experience behind the trigger.
