

Appointment of New CEO and Chairman of Board of Directors

Siem Reap, Kingdom of Cambodia / 9 July 2019: Angkor Cookies KH Co. Ltd. ("Angkor Cookies") announced the appointment, effective today, of Ms. Ritsuko Tominaga as Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of the Company. She will also become Chairman of the Board of Directors upon completion of requisite legal procedures, which should be in mid-September.

Ms. Tominaga, a confectionery specialist, who has been running a confectionery producing company for many years in Japan, will succeed Ms. Atsumi Kusumi, who has achieved "building a strong team through education" over the past three years since assuming the reins from its founder. Under her tutelage, we aim to continue to be a company that "Cambodians can work with pride." by boldly challenging to create new products and markets that can be supported by customers.

Ms. Ritsuko Tominaga bio

Born in Osaka, her grandfather's company, Olympia Co., Ltd., a producer of chocolate confectionery, was her playground from an early age. She started playing piano from 4 years old and took on singing from 17 years old.

She graduated from Kasugaoka Osaka Prefectural High School and the Vocal Music Department at the Faculty of Music of Soai University. Starting during her university days, she was an instructor at the Roland Music School, teaching classes ranging from classical piano to computer music, as well as performing on tv commercial songs etc. as a professional singer and pianist.

She joined Nippon Chocolate Co., Ltd. in 1999, resigning in May 2002 to establish Re-mix Co., Ltd in June 2002.

Ms. Tominaga is a member of the Entrepreneurs' Organization (EO) and served as the EO Asia Bridge Chair from July 2018 to June 2019.

Her hobbies are eating, cooking and travel. She has visited more than 100 cities in 35 countries.
