

LAKE PLACID NEWS

WE ARE LAKE PLACID podcast: Jery Huntley and Karen Glass, Adirondack Community history project

Jery Huntley explains the Adirondack Community history project to a crowd on Saturday, June 15

during an open house at the Keene Valley Library. (News photo — Andy Flynn)

LAKE PLACID – Lake Placid News Editor Andy Flynn stopped by the Keene Valley Library on Saturday, June 15 when the Adirondack Community history project was launched, and he spoke with Library Director Karen Glass and volunteer Jery Huntley. Learn more about the project at "http://www.myadirondackstory.org">www.myadirondackstory.org.

Listen to a portion of this interview on the “We are Lake Placid” podcast from the Lake Placid News by visiting Apple Podcasts at podcasts.apple.com/us/podcast/we-are-lake-placid/id1388667446?mt=2.

Also listen on Soundcloud at soundcloud.com/user-340941505 and Stitcher at www.stitcher.com/podcast/lake-placid-news/we-are-lake-placid.

This podcast is sponsored by Adirondack Health.
