

GLANCE

by: JAY ANGSIOCO SARIO

In the words we speak, a story unfolds
Of a land so diverse, with stories untold
Tagalog, our language, our cultural crown
A mirror of our past, where traditions abound

With every syllable, a history is revealed
Of heroes and battles, of dreams that are sealed
In the melodic rhythm of our native tongue
Lies the heart of a nation, forever young

From the mountains to the sea, our language thrives
In the songs we sing and the stories we revive
It is in the language of our ancestors' voice
That our culture and traditions truly rejoice

So let us cherish this gift, this linguistic treasure
For in our language lies our cultural measure
The Filipino language, a mirror so bright
Reflecting our heritage, in its purest light.
