

Young non-Japanese nationals living in Aichi, who are over 15 (compulsory school age), and university students from Assoc. Prof. Kojima's study room joined the working camp.

A night class in Osaka (Tenma Junior High School)

Learn from the film "Konbanwa (Good Evening) II":
Symposium on Diverse Educational Opportunities
 incl. public junior high school night classes

FEE
FREE

June 30, 2019 (Sun.) 13:30-16:30

Venue: Aichi Shukutoku Univ. Hoshigaoka Campus 55A (300m away from Hoshigaoka stn. on the subway Higashiyama line. *College car parking NOT available. Use public transportation.

For this symposium, we will invite two speakers -a documentary filmmaker about night classes at public junior high schools, and Mr. Hiroshi Hase, a member of the House of Representatives and the former MEXT Minister. After the film screening, we will discuss desirable educational programs in Tokai region together with the audience. Consecutive interpretation will be provided in Filipino, Portuguese and English.

Part I: Screening & public talk

Night school movie "Konbanwa 2"
Film director: Mr. Yasuyuki Mori

Born in Shizuoka in 1950.
 In 1978, directed the first short cultural film "Traditional private houses in downtown" (created by Tokyo Metropolitan Government). Since then, created a number of documentary films and produced TV/documentary programs.

Part II: Think together

Lecture: "Why the nationwide night school programs are needed, and why the diversity in educational opportunities is important"

Mr. Hiroshi Hase,
 House of Representatives member

Commentary

Ms Kiyoe Ito, Torcida (NPO Corp.)

Discussion

Sponsor: Yoshimi KOJIMA, Associate Professor, Ph.D. Aichi Shukutoku University

Co-sponsor: Japanese Society for the Study of Basic Education and Literacies

This symposium is funded by a grant from JSPS - Grant number KAKENHI JP17K04715.

Registration Form

200 seats only (First-come-first-served)

<Contact>

kojimazemi.asu@gmail.com

FAX 052-783-1549

