

August 15,
The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Open Rectory & Open Church!

As a new pastor at St. Patrick's, I have so many things to learn. I recently learned that one of our traditions at our parish is a "Parish Picnic" in August 15 while celebrating the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Since we just had the Parish Picnic in June 27 to say farewell to Fr. Tom Kadera, we will have "Open Rectory & Open Church" this year instead so that we still come together as one family of faith to celebrate this Feast.

Another reason that I want to have "Open Rectory & Open Church" this year because the house in which I am living is YOUR house and I am so blessed to live in this beautiful house. Because this is your house, you should come and see how things are in your house. Because this is our Church, we should come and see how things have changed at St. Patrick's. I hope to see you here at St. Patrick's Church this Sunday at 6PM – 8PM and stop at the rectory first to taste Vietnamese Food prepared with LOVE. All are Welcome!!!

May God bless you and keep your families safe! Let us come and celebrate the Feast! Fr. Hiep support you, please call me or make a personal visit and I will appreciate it.

May God bless you always and Be assured of my prayer for you as well as your families!

Fr. Hiep
