Thus, "1Q84" (English: 1Q84) is the title of the first volume of the series, in this case translated by Philip Gabriel. The cover of the book is in typical minimalistic style for the Vintage International label, a simple white background, and a simple black title that can also be seen in the PDF file of the book that is available on the publisher's website. The pages inside also have the same simple style: only the first page of the book is present, in black and white, with an orange bookmark to give a sense of reading the book. We then get a small preview of the first few pages of the book, where we see that the book is written in 520fdb1ae7
