Hanh Nguyen is a Ph.D. scholar at the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre, Coral Bell School of Asia Pacific Affairs, the Australian National University. She is also an YCAPS fellow and administrator of the Maritime Security Network. She has worked as a non-resident WSD-Handa fellow at Pacific Forum. Her research interests include the economic-security nexus, Southeast Asia’s relations with great powers, and Vietnam’s foreign policy. She is the author of “US-ASEAN Cooperation in Digital Economy” (in Pacific Forum’s Issues & Insights Vol. 23, WP4, 2023), “Vietnam and the shift towards maritime security cooperation” (in Maritime Cooperation and Security in the Indo-Pacific Region: Essays in Honour of Sam Bateman, 2023) and the co-author of “Asymmetric interdependence and the selective diversification of supply chains” (Journal of Contemporary Eastern Asia, 2022, with Stephen R. Nagy). Her research has been funded by the Japanese Grant Aid for Human Resource Development Scholarship and the Australian Government Research Training Program.