The use limit is to assure that if an unqualified person tries to deliver this initiation and runs into problems, they alone are responsible. This is a powerful initiatory process that tends to catalyze expansion in personal consciousness. It needs to be delivered within a specifically held context by a person with a specific skill level, quality of consciousness, and intention.)

PURPOSE:

- To help you recognize the giant Being you have been withholding from the world secretly inside you in order to survive through modern-culture childhood.
- To discover that others – even complete strangers – accurately perceive the qualities of your SecretGiant, proving that it is not very secret after-all.
- To convince you undeniably of the value of your own presence of Being before you do or say anything.
- To practice explaining your own incredible value with supportive feedback and coaching to help you more effectively source the New Story in the world.
- To formulate your true profession in New Story terminology.

FORMAT:

Sitting in chairs in groups of 4, with 3 people facing 1 person. Participants need pen and paper for taking notes. (90 min)

NOTE: Please introduce Rapid Learning before delivering this initiatory process! This initiation uses Rapid Learning.

NOTE: This initiation has 2 parts which can be done one after the other, or at separate times. It is recommended to do SecretGiant Initiation before New Story Profession Initiation.

NOTE: Instructions for the Energetic Upload / Download Circle with Gaia and the human morphogenetic field is included at the end of this write-up.

SECRETGIANT INITIATION:

(Placeholder notes are given in parenthesis. The rest can simply be read out loud.)

1. Please get into groups of 4 and sit in chairs with 3 people facing 1 person. Make sure your group has access to a box of tissues, a hand towel, and a plastic bucket.
2. The 1 person, you are the Client.
3. The 3 people, you are the New Story Team.

4. The Client has come to the New Story Team to shift his or her self-perception, to transform their story about themselves. Until now their self-experience story was defined by the modern-culture paradigm and their calling has been imprisoned in modern-culture terminology.
5. To get a reference point we remind ourselves that modern culture is a capitalist patriarchal empire gameworld. This means that the Client's self-experience story has been twisted so they fit into and can be a functional part of that framework. (NOTE: This is a shocking realization and people may experience some grief about this.)
6. The Client wishes to shift the story that shapes their self-experience and they need your help. By the way, once you have done this initiatory process yourself and once you have held space for someone else to do it, you can offer this consultation to thousands of other culture shifters. Offering this initiation could be part of your new profession!
7. The first step in this initiation is to give the Client a safe listening-space into which they can try speaking their New Story about themselves.
8. One of the New Story Team needs to be the Scribe in each session. Use the Client's own paper and pen, and take complete and accurate notes about what the Client says.
9. Clients, your New Story Team is going to vanish themselves into ultra-safe listening bubbles by snapping their fingers like this (click!).
10. Clients, it is your turn to try a wild experiment. Let the SecretGiant in you describe itself to your New Story Team. At first you may feel resistance or embarrassment. Don't let that stop you. The time has come for the SecretGiant to announce itself and to come out of its hiding place. (NOTE: Each time through choose two different questions for the Client to particularly focus on.)
 - a. Announce your hidden powers.
 - b. Describe your special talents.
 - c. Explain your giant vision.
 - d. Outline your secret mission in the world.
 - e. Share what moves you to tears and rage.
 - f. Say what you are going to change in the world.
 - g. Reveal your actual purpose in life.
 - h. Explain your deeper connection to Gaia.
11. New Story Team, you just listen. Client, please begin.
12. (3 min) Please come to a stop. (pause for a deep breath)
13. Scribe, please hand the papers and pen back to the Client so they can take further notes if they want to.
14. New Story Team, it is now your turn to tell the Client what you see about their SecretGiant. Be clear. Be bold. Keep looking into their eyes. Scan their Being with your energetic body and speak before you know what you are going to say. (NOTE:

Choose two different questions for the New Story Team to particularly focus on with each Client.)

- a. What is that Giant Being capable of?
- b. From Gaia's view, what are they here for?
- c. How can they create a New Story future?
- d. What is their sacred purpose?
- e. What is their New Story profession?
- f. In what ways are they a bridge to the New Story?
- g. What is the secret magic they deliver?
- h. What is the service to culture-shift that they can best provide?

15. Client, you just listen. New Story Team, please begin.

16. (4 min) Please come to a stop.

17. (Pause to allow a moment of digestion. Perhaps ask everyone to take a deep breath while you do the same.)

18. How many Clients are sitting across from people you never met before?

19. How many Clients are amazed at how accurately perfect strangers can perceive your SecretGiant?

20. As it turns out, your SecretGiant is not so secret, eh? (pause) It has always been this way.

21. Now it's the Client's turn to practice letting their SecretGiant speak. Clients, start your sentences with "I am..." "I can..." "I stand for..." "I represent..." Let your SecretGiant tell your New Story about your own self-experience.

- a. At the same time, New Story Team, please add in or change anything the Client leaves out or under-states, and after each time you speak say, "Shift! Go!"
- b. Clients, while this is all happening, write down and memorize the most accurate condensed version of the New Story about yourself.

22. Clients and New Story Team, please begin.

23. (4 min) Please come to a stop. (pause for a moment)

24. Please all stand up and circle to the next chair in your Team and sit down so you have a new Client.

25. (Start over at STEP 8. Repeat this process until all 4 participants have had a chance to be the Client.)

26. (You can either continue on to the New Story Profession Initiation, or you can do that at a later time. Let people know your decision or ask them to choose.)

27. Thank you for changing your self-experience story, and for giving birth to your SecretGiant into the world. (pause) We need you.

NEW STORY PROFESSION INITIATION:

(Placeholder notes are given in parenthesis. The rest can simply be read out loud.)

(NOTE: If you wish you can provide some kind of blank nametags that people can write their New Story Profession onto and wear after it is clarified.)

1. Your self-image is your understanding about the work you do to serve the world. But your present job description was formulated in the values and frameworks of modern culture's capitalist patriarchal empire. Who are you really? What are you doing here?
2. This process uses group intelligence to help you re-formulate your services in language that emerges from the New Story of next culture, the culture that emerges after matriarchy and patriarchy – sometimes referred to as archearchy, the culture of archetypally initiated adult women creatively collaborating with archetypally initiated adult men.
3. New Story cultures know exactly how to make use of village weavers, memetic engineers, transformation vortices, element shifters, demon slayers, archearchal infrastructure knights, and development navigators. The question is, are you ready to reformulate what you are? (yes)
4. Please make sure you have your notes from the SecretGiant Initiation plus a pen and paper. Please organize yourselves into groups of 4 sitting in chairs, with 3 people facing 1 person.
5. The 1 person is the Client.
6. The 3 people are the New Story Team.
7. Clients, please tell your New Story Team the condensed form of the qualities of your SecretGiant. Do it from memory if you can. Use your notes if you want to. New Story Team, just listen. Please begin.
8. (2 min) Please come to a stop.
9. Clients, please tell your New Story Team your current modern-culture job description, what you have been doing for a living. Also tell them what you were doing when you have felt most turned-on and serving Gaia in the flow. Please begin.
10. (1 min) Please come to a stop.
11. Clients, please tell your New Story Team what is your New Story Profession in 2 to 5 words. Say, "I am a _____." Please begin.
12. (1 min) Please come to a stop.
13. New Story Team, now work with your Client to distill and clarify their New Story Profession in 2 to 5 words. It may already be perfect. It may need some adjusting. Use Team intelligence. When you've got it, please write this on a nametag so they can wear it for the remainder of your time together. Please begin.

- 14.(4 min) Please come to a stop.
- 15.(pause for a moment of digestion) Would any Clients like to stand up and tell us your New Story Profession? (let a few people say theirs – perhaps everyone if they wish)
- 16.Please all stand up and circle to a new chair in your Team and then sit down so you have a new Client.
- 17.(Start over at STEP 7 with the new Clients, and repeat until all 4 have had a chance to be Client.)
- 18.Would everyone please stand, clear things from the middle of the room and come together into a close circle? (pause until everyone has their arms around the next person's shoulders or waist)
- 19.At the count of 3, please say out loud into the space of the circle your New Story Profession. 1. 2. 3. (pause)
- 20.(OPTIONAL) Bringing integrity to your New Story Profession results in a project. It is Project Party Time. Welcome to Gaia's Chaordic Café! (see Gaia's Chaordic Café write-up)
- 21.(OPTIONAL) This was amazing work. We have benefitted greatly. It is time to share what we have discovered and created together with Gaia and the rest of humanity. (see the Upload / Download With Gaia And The Morphogenetic Field instructions below)

UPLOAD / DOWNLOAD WITH GAIA AND THE MORPHOGENETIC FIELD:

(This is a 5 minute non-rational energetic-upload-and-download process that begins with 3 or more people sitting or standing in a circle.)

1. Please take the hands (if sitting) shoulders (if standing) of the people next to you in the circle.
2. Please take a deep breath and close your eyes.
3. Please create a ping-pong ball sized ball of swirling golden archetypal love in the center of your heart. (pause)
4. Shoot the ball to your left so it circles around through the hearts of the other people. (pause)
5. It usually stops somewhere along the circle, at first. So make another golden swirling ball of archetypal love in your heart and shoot it again to your left.
6. Yes. Like that. As the balls shoot around through the hearts they weave a string of archetypal love behind them.

7. Keep shooting golden swirling balls of archetypal love to your left until they come all the way around the circle and continue going around-and-around all by themselves.
8. Yes. Now. Make another golden swirling ball of archetypal love in your heart only this time shoot it to the right.
9. Yes. Keep shooting golden balls to your right until they go around-and-around all by themselves. (pause for a moment to enjoy the archetypal love whizzing around in both directions)
10. Automatically this circling flow of golden archetypal love expands downwards into a cylinder connecting us deep into the Gaian field of Earth (pause) and also expands upwards into the human morphogenetic field. (pause)
11. Then the exchange happens. We upload and share everything we have learned, discovered, and created into Gaia, and also into the morphogenetic field of all of humanity (pause) and we download into us everything that Gaia and humanity have recently learned, discovered and created. (Pause as the uploading and downloading occur. It takes only 10 to 15 seconds.)
12. The uploading and downloading is very fast, efficient and natural. (Pause a few seconds to enjoy the satisfaction of a collaborative job well done.)
13. Everyone please take a deep breath. (pause) Please gently open your eyes. (pause)
14. Thank you all for this extraordinary chaordic collaboration. This space is now ended. Please be sure to drink a big glass of water.

COMPLETION AND WRAP UP:

(NOTE: The upload / download can be a strong experience, especially if it follows on the tail of another strong experience. As people melt out of the circle you still continue to hold space for everyone to easefully but completely shift back into a normal kind of space. Effortlessly scan each person to make sure they are integrating okay. Stay attentive and open to providing whatever might be needed in this moment. It could be an open-hearted agreeable ear for them to speak to – without re-entering the training space. It could be joining in their ecstatic celebration of success – while immediately identifying Gremlin if he is trying to take over and destroy what just happened. It could be some people need a holding that you can help arrange with others. Just be there for whatever is wanted and needed by the space. After everyone has gathered themselves together sufficiently, you can clean and collapse the space in gratitude.)
