From the Pastor:

Your generosity and prayers are still having an impact here in Khon Kaen, dear friends and gospel partners! God's goodness filled July to overflowing, and I can't wait to tell you about the highlights. We welcomed new neighbors, parents, and students every week, and they heard the good news in both Thai and English. Sundays are lively and joyful, members are inviting friends, and regular attendance is higher than ever.

The renovation of our second floor is nearly finished. Only a few small changes need to be made before it is finished, thanks to a talented new construction crew. We give thanks to God for the project's quick progress.

In addition, we replaced the faded church sign that had become a part of the background with a bright new one. Neighbors have already commented on how welcoming it looks, and the bold, clear lettering is easily visible from the street. We hope it will lead a lot more people to a community that is centered around Christ.

Another highlight of July was Operation Christmas Child. Children's faces lit up when they received shoebox gifts after Sunday lunch, and they learned about creation and Jesus' life through interactive teaching. A special Mother's Day weekend celebration has been rescheduled for August 9–10 due to weather and illness that prevented several children from attending. Mothers will witness their children finish the lessons and get their gifts—a chance to share the gospel with entire families.

As God multiplies your prayers and support for His work in Thailand, we appreciate your support.

Your servant in Christ,

Curt Mathis
