

Kickstart Your Chinese for China Travel

A 4-week beginner course designed for adults. It focuses on starting well, not rushing ahead. The goal is to help you build a realistic foundation for travel situations, understand how Chinese works, and know how to continue learning after the course.

This course is designed for adults who:

- Are planning to travel to China and want to start learning Chinese, but don't know where or how to begin
- Want to prepare for their trip in a realistic and efficient way, not by memorizing random phrases
- Care about understanding how Chinese actually works, not just what to say

If you want to feel more clear, confident, and grounded before moving on to deeper travel-focused language and cultural preparation, this course is meant for you.

Weekly structure

- 30 min self-study — learn at your own pace with videos, audio, and exercises
- 45 min live group session — review, speak, ask questions, get feedback
- Daily online support — post your questions anytime, get feedback by end of the day

Price: Free

Next starting date: 21. 2. 2026

- Welcome session at 18:00-18:45 on 21.2
- New self-study content is released every Sunday
- Live group session at 18:00-18:45 CET every Wednesday

How to Register

Please send an email to travelthroughchineselearning@gmail.com with the following information:

- Your full name
- Your email address
- Course name: Kickstart Your Chinese for China Travel

You will receive a confirmation email after registration.

One week before the course starts, detailed instructions and the course link will be sent to you.

