

Keisha Siriboe – A Doctoral candidate studying English Language Education at HKU is the founder of Stories of Us which received the 2017 Dreamcatcher Award for Entrepreneurship from the University of Hong Kong.

Gerard Escaler is the Chief Marketing Officer of Lyrium Venture Partners. He specializes in advancing innovation, strategy and data analytics for corporate and institutional clients as well as start-ups.

Patti Hunt is co-founder and director of Make Studios, a Design Thinking & Innovation company, working with multinational clients to design customer-centric business models, value propositions, products and services.

Paul Gresham an agile software practitioner from London, is the CIO of APAC Solutions Technology. Paul recognizes that innovation and happiness stem from the freedom to openly participate in diverse environments.

James Green is the Chief Operating Officer for Greater China and Chief Operating Officer for Asset Management, Asia Pacific. James was a founding member of the CS LGBT Open Network in 2014 and in 2016 took over as Chair of the network.

Panel and Networking Event

Innovation through Inclusion

Building Innovation through Inclusive Community

Thursday, September 21st
6–8 p.m.
Paul Calello Auditorium,
Credit Suisse, Hong Kong
Level 88, ICC

Credit Suisse is committed to promoting a partnership culture that attracts, retains, engages and develops diverse talent.

Credit Suisse IT Women Council is hosting an “Innovation through Inclusion” panel and networking internal and external leaders who will provide diverse viewpoint Innovation and Inclusion.

Contact Lea.Angelin-Linker@credit-Suisse.com or Venique.Chan@credit-suisse.com