DPVA Party Services

The Democratic Party of Virginia (DPVA) exists to facilitate and encourage the full participation of all Democrats at all levels of organization. In doing so, the DPVA provides party services to district and local committees as well as affiliated party organizations. Services listed below can be accessed by request sent to political@vademocrats.org or at any time via phone at (804) 644-1966 ex: 1004

Online Resources

The Chairs Resource Library - is accessible to any member of the Democratic Party at <https://vademocrats.org/chairs/>

The library includes party affairs information, election resources, the DPVA Chair's Handbook and other information that can be helpful to the duties and responsibilities of Party organizations and their members.

Virginia Voting - information is available to anyone at <https://vademocrats.org/vote/>

This site includes election dates and deadlines, how to vote early, and how to vote by mail in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

DPVA Votebuilder – resources are available at <https://votebuilder.vademocrats.org/>

The site includes information on how to gain access to Votebuilder for campaigns and local committees, as well as training documents and videos for users.

Staff Resources

Digital - DPVA provides assistance with website, social media, and digital improvements to committees and party organizations. The DPVA online statewide calendar can be found at <https://vademocrats.org/> and submissions can be made at digital@vademocrats.org.

Communications - The DPVA Communications Team can provide local assistance regarding local media strategy and consulting, talking points, and highlighting local stories and issues facing elected officials.

Training - In-house training and online resources are accessible through the DPVA. Trainings are available for Democratic Party candidates, staff, and volunteers covering Finance, Organizing, Digital, etc. Interested in taking part in future trainings or have suggestions on what DPVA should cover in the future? Please contact political@vademocrats.org .

Compliance & Legal Guidance - The team at DPVA provides assistance in the submission of finance reporting and compliances standards. The team at DPVA can connect you with legal resources if needed by your Democratic Party organization.

Voter Protection - The DPVA Voter Protection Team is looking for volunteers to help protect the vote for the June Primary and for the November General Elections. As a Poll Observer, Hotline Operator, Voter Protection Locality Liaison, Voter Protection Campus Captain, or a Phone Banker you will help Virginia voters by applying Virginia's election laws. FAQs, as well as webinar training will be provided. If you are Interested in joining the Voter Protection Team, please email voterprotection@vademocrats.org
