One of the most suitable activities to relax is watching a movie. But if you watch a movie in a movie every day, you know it could be a kismis, a gang. Not to mention the effort we have to put out to go there, it has to be expensive and make it tired. Well, you should be grateful for technological progress, gang. Nowadays you can watch the latest and best movies easily, i.e. through the best movie theater app that you can access on your Android phone. Don't worry, the recommended free movie viewing app below is available to access legally though! Want to know what the list is? Look, let's go! A collection of free cinemas and legal apps on Android For those of you who want to watch movies online for free, should already know that sites like IndoXXI, LK21, and the like have been blocked, right? Instead of you visiting watch sites and downloading free movies on the Internet, which are obviously illegal, download free movie viewing apps like the following, gangs. But keep in mind, not all movie content in the app can be enjoyed for free. You will need to pay a subscription fee to unlock all the premium features of the app. Benefits of legal movie watching App compared to illegal movie streaming Photo Source: pexels.com (Watch movies online movies very much fond of today's Generation) Although the above apps are not fully able to access them for free, but there are some benefits that you can get when using a legitimate movie viewing app. The benefits you get may not have a direct impact, but you can still in it, for example: Support for the development of the film industry, this is due to the guaranteed intellectual property rights (HAKI) of filmmakers. In addition, you also don't flow money into illegal streaming services such as LK21, which are projected to earn up to Rp80 million per day. It's safe and free from malicious attacks because you'll directly use the official apps supported by developers that are officially available either in the Google Play Store for Android or in the App Store for the iPhone. No more annoying ads though, when you choose a free ad option will still appear, the gang. But of course these ads are safe, unlike illegal movie streaming sites that mostly smell like pornographic and gambling ads. Recommended best legal movie streaming app (Update 2020) Well, now we just go straight to the main point of this article, which is the best movie streaming app with a super full collection.
