The film, despite very negative reviews, was a moderate box office success. Plot In Ipswich, the four high school boys - Caleb, Pogue, Reed and Tyler, together known as sons of Ipswich - are descendants of colonial witch families and thus possess magical powers that first manifest themselves on their 13th birthday and become stronger until they rise to 18. Power is linked to their vitality; the more they use, the faster they age. This becomes more dangerous as after Ascension their powers reach their full strength and become so exciting, seductive as they say, that some cannot resist. Caleb, who is closest to his 18th birthday, shows restraint. While visiting the fire, Caleb meets Sarah, a translation student at a public high school in Boston. The sons also meet Chase Collins, the new student at Spencer Academy. Their meeting is interrupted when the cops seem to disperse the party. The boys escape using their combined power. After a student is found mysteriously dead near their campus, various paranormal phenomena occur, with Sarah and her roommate Kate in the spotlight of it. Frustrated, Caleb suspects Reed - the most reckless of sorcerers - but he angrily denies any abusive use of his powers. Caleb and Pogh later see a dark, dead spirit and a malicious omen. Meanwhile, Caleb and Sarah quickly become romantically close. During the swim, Caleb notices Chase, who befriends the group, showing magical use. After the investigation, Caleb concludes that Chase comes from a fifth family, believed to be long extinct, that he is Goodwin's bastard son Goody Dad and that he is true When The Sons discuss this revelation, Pog learns that his girlfriend Kate was in a coma because of a spell. Furious, he hastily challenges Chase, who quickly hospitalizes him. Caleb visits Sarah just to fall into Chase's trap. Chase reveals that he was unaware of the origin of his magic when he was adopted. After discovering his biological father, he learned about the price for Ascension; but it was too late, and he became too addicted to the use of magic. Then his biological father gave him power. Chase wants to force other Ascended Witches to give him power, starting with Caleb. Despite Caleb's warning that having more power does not save him from aging to death, Chase ignores him. Before leaving, Chase threatens to harm Caleb's family and friends if he doesn't get what he wants. Caleb reveals the truth to Sarah and takes her to her father, a man of 44 years with a decrepit old body, exhausted by magical violence. When Sarah offers one of the other three to hand over his power to Caleb so that he can match Chase evenly, Caleb immediately refuses, explaining that it will cost them their lives. On the night of Caleb's 18th birthday, he goes to face Chase alone and Reed and Tyler protect Sarah in public. However, Chase easily kidnaps Sarah. In the old barn, they confront each other. Chase reveals the mesmerizing Sarah and gives Caleb the ultimatum of her life. Caleb declares that he will not power him away or let Sarah come to harm. They duel and Caleb clearly outmatched. At the exact moment of his birth, he rises and his power fully matures, allowing him to mount an offensive. However, since Chase has more than one magic share, it still turns higher and the temporary tide turn does not last long. Back home, Evelyn, Caleb's mother, pleads with her husband to save Caleb. He sacrifices himself and transfers his power remotely to his son. After his father's strength penetrates him, Caleb hits Chase with the final blow, which engulfed him with a fireball. Sarah, Kate and Pog wake up, freeing themselves from their curses. Firefighters arrived at the scene. Caleb and Sarah wait until the examination of the wreckage of the shed is complete; they are told that a third man has not been found, suggesting that Chase somehow survived and escaped. The pair get into Caleb's car and he accidentally uses magic to fix a broken windshield that seems visibly disturbing for Sarah. He is reassuringly holding her hand and they leave. one of the four Sons of Ipswich, he attends Spencer Academy with the other Sons and is the oldest and most responsible and protective of the four. He is very cautious about the use of the Force, because of the influence it had on his father, and is the first Ascended. Sebastian Stan as Chase Collins as the new student at Spenser who is friends with the Sons Ipswich, and is the film's chief antagonist. Laura Ramsey as Sarah Wenham - a new student Spencer, who moves from Boston Public School and love interest Caleb and girlfriend Kate. Taylor Kitsch as Pog Perry, one of Ipswich's four sons; oldest after Caleb and his best friend, he is also Kate's boyfriend. Jessica Lucas as Kate Tanney as Sarah's roommate and Pog's friend. Toby Hemingway as Reed Garvin is one of Ipswich's four sons and the most reckless and reckless of the four, often head with Caleb. Chase Crawford as Tyler Simms, one of Ipswich's four sons; the youngest of the four closest to Reed and usually takes his side. Kyle Schmid as Aaron Abbott as a bombastic student and jockey. Sarah Smith as Keira Snyder as Aaron's snobbish and girlfriend. Wendy Krewson as Evelyn Danvers- Caleb's mother, who worries about her son Ascension and becomes like her father.
