No barber may be disciplined for refusing to enter into such a collateral agreement with the Company.

The Company and the Union agree to cause the checkoff authorization form to comply with all applicable federal laws.

Section 4. The Union agrees that there shall be no liability on the part of the Company for the collection of any unpaid service fees which may be due the Union from the employee, who because of absence from work or termination of employment, has no wages payable to him at the regular time for service fees collections. The Union shall indemnify and save the Company harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability including reasonable attorney's fees that shall be incurred or necessitated by reason of action taken or not taken by the Company in reliance upon, certified lists furnished to the Company by the Union or service fees checkoff authorization cards, furnished to the Company by the Union or by the employee; or for the purpose of complying with any of the provisions of this Article.

The Company retains the right to reject any applicant referred by the Union. If an acceptable applicant has not been referred within forty-eight (48) hours after the Union has been informed of a vacancy, (or such shorter period of time as may be required by emergency conditions), the Company may hire from other sources of applicants. Notwithstanding this provision, the company may give preference to present and former employees in filling vacancies.

ARTICLE VII. Layoff and Seniority.

Section 1. Employees, except as hereinafter provided, will be laid off in order of seniority with the most junior employees (regardless whether classified as manager or journeyman barbers) being laid off first; recalls from layoffs shall be in reverse order of the layoffs. Although the Company's general manager is permitted to perform unit work, it is understood that the Company is not bound to lay off or recall its general manager pursuant to the provisions of this Article. Notice of the vacancy will be posted in all shops for a period of one week, with space provided for employees to indicate their desire to take the open job. The most senior employee so bidding who is qualified to perform the job shall be selected for the job. If no employee bids, the least senior employee qualified to perform the job shall be assigned to such job. Section 3. The bidding procedure provided in Section 2 shall not apply to managers. The manager of each shop shall be selected by the Company from among the journeyman barbers in that shop. - 1) He voluntarily quits;
- 2) He is discharged for just cause;
- 3) Layoff for more than one year or absence due to medical disability beyond the medical leave authorized in this Agreement;
- 4) If upon being recalled after any layoff, a barber does not return to work within three (3) working days after being notified to do so by certified mail at his last known address, provided that in the discretion of the Company said three (3) day period may be extended;
- 5) He fails to report to work at the expiration of any leave of absence, vacation, or military obligation.

ARTICLE VIII. Discipline and Discharge.

Section 1. All new employees shall be "probationary employees" until such time as they work for the Company thirty (30) days from the date of their last hire. Probationary employees may be discharged by the Company with or without cause, and neither such probationary employees nor the Union shall have any recourse or claim against the Company by reason of such discharge.

Section 2. It is agreed that certain employee conduct is of such a nature as to subject the employee guilty of such conduct to immediate termination. Such conduct includes but is not limited to: theft or other misappropriation of Company funds or property; gross insubordination; physical fighting or carrying a deadly weapon while on duty or while on the premises of the base; willful damage of Company property or property in the care of the Company; causing liability for the Company or the Company's malpractice insurer by negligently performing services for customers; possession or use of alcoholic beverages, narcotics, hallucinatory drugs or other controlled substances while on duty or on the base; falsification of Company records. Any employee who has been the subject of three (3) complaints by customers or the military authorities within any twelve (12) month period shall be immediately subject to suspension or discharge at the Company's discretion, provided that the employee has been informed of these complaints at the time they were filed and has been given an opportunity to refute the complaints.

Section 3. The following conduct on the part of an employee shall be grounds for discharge or discipline, provided the employee or the Union has received one (1) prior written warning during the preceding two (2) years regarding the same conduct by the employee: verbal altercations with customers or AAFES personnel; failure to adhere to Company cash handling procedures; being under the influence of alcoholic beverages, narcotics, hallucinatory drugs or other controlled substances while on duty or on base.

Section 4. The following conduct on the part of an employee shall be grounds for discharge or other discipline provided that the employee or the Union has received three (3) prior written warnings during the preceding nine (9) months regarding the same conduct by the employee; failure to adhere to applicable sanitation standards (but warning shall remain effective for two (2) years rather than nine (9) months); failure to report to work at the designated time without excuse and without prior notification of the Company where possible; excessive tardiness or absenteeism; inability to adequately perform job functions.

Section 5. The following conduct on the part of an employee shall be grounds for discharge or other discipline provided that the employee or the Union has received three (3) prior written warnings during the preceding nine (9) months regarding the same conduct by the employee: failure to adhere to applicable sanitation standards (but warning shall remain effective for two (2) years rather than nine (9) months); failure to report to work at the designated time without excuse and without prior notification of the Company where possible; excessive tardiness or absenteeism; inability to adequately perform job functions.

ARTICLE IX. Sick Leave.

Section 1. All employees who have worked one (1) full year for the company shall thereafter be entitled to six (6) days unpaid sick leave per year, provided they have a bona fide doctor's certificate.

Section 2. Employees shall be entitled to a leave of absence due to disability caused by illness or injury, upon certification of such disability by a licensed physician, not to exceed one year, unless a longer period is mutually agreed upon by the employee and the Company.

ARTICLE X. No Discrimination.

The Company and Union mutually agree not to discriminate against any employee because of race, creed, religion, color, sex, national origin or union membership.

ARTICLE XI. Maintenance of Standards.

The Company agrees that all conditions of employment in its operation relating to wages, hours of work, overtime differential, insurance and general working conditions, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, shall be maintained at not less than the highest standards in effect at the time of the execution of this Agreement and the conditions of employment are made in this Agreement. It is also agreed that the provisions of this section shall not apply to inadvertent or bona fide errors made by the Company or the Union if such error is corrected within one (1) year from the date of execution of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XII. Barber's Responsibilities.

Section 1. Barbers shall be responsible for training themselves so that they shall at all times be able to give up-to-date services and perform all the functions of a full service barber shop.

Section 2. Each barber shall be responsible for keeping his station clean and up to Exchange standards on a continuous basis, including dusting his chair and backbar daily. Each barber shall also be obligated to keep the entire shop in a neat and orderly fashion and the floor free from hair.

Section 3. The Company shall not be obligated to provide janitorial services to clean and maintain the shops. Rather, the parties agree that each shop will be cleaned and maintained and kept up in a manner satisfactory to the Exchange and the Company in accordance with the practices that are currently in effect.

ARTICEL XIII. Sanitation.

The Company agrees to furnish, at all times, a healthful, sufficiently lighted, properly heated and well ventilated place for the performance all work that is being performed under and pursuant to this Collective Bargaining Agreement. The Company also agrees to comply with all federal law relating to the safety of its employees. The Union agrees to cooperate with the Company with respect to safety and sanitation. However, both parties recognize that the buildings in which work is performed are furnished and maintained by the Exchange and that alterations and improvements in such buildings must be approved and financed by the Exchange or the military.

ARTICLE XIV. No Strike and No Lockout Clause.

The Union agrees that during the period of this Agreement the Union, its officers, representatives and members shall not take part in any strike, slow down or stoppage of work, boycott, picketing or interruption of or interference with the work and business of the Company. The Union and its members further agree that it will not utilize roving pickets against the Company whereby the Company's employees at Ft. Sill or persons acting on their behalf, would in any manner or for any reason picket the Company's operations at any other military installation where the Company's employees are covered by a current Collective Bargaining Agreement with an affiliate of the Union Food and Commercial Workers International. The Union also agrees that it will not honor any picket line or representatives when the picketing is not being conducted by persons employed by the Company at its Ft. Sill barbershop facilities. The participation by any employee in any conduct prohibited by this Article or the failure or refusal on the part of any employee to comply with any provision of this Article shall be cause for whatever disciplinary action, including discharge, is deemed appropriate by the Company. The Company agrees that it shall not lock out the employees covered hereby during the period of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XV. Grievance Procedure and Arbitration.

Section 1. Should any differences, disputes or controversies arise between the Company and the Union, or any member of the Union employed by the Company, as to compliance with, the meaning of, or the application of the provisions of this Agreement, then there shall be no work stoppage because of such dispute but rather an effort shall be made to settle the same immediately in accordance with the following procedure:

Step 1: Any employee having a grievance will first attempt to adjust the same with the Company's general manager for the Barber Shops.

Step 2: If a grievance or dispute is not settled at Step 1, then it shall be reduced to writing by the aggrieved party and submitted to the opposite party within thirty (30) days from the date on which the dispute, complaint, or grievance first arose. If the Union or employee is submitting the grievance it shall be mailed to Rex Morena at the Company's headquarters in pre-addressed envelopes and a carbon or photocopy shall be kept. If the Company is submitting the grievance it should be mailed to the Union or its attorney. The other party to the dispute shall then have thirty (30) days from receipt of the grievance in which to respond in writing to it.

Step 3: If a grievance is not then satisfactorily settled at Step 2, it may, within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the written response, be referred by either party to arbitration in strict accordance with the provisions of this Agreement pertaining to arbitration.

Section 2. Any disputes, complaints or grievances arising from alleged violations of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived, unless the same are presented in writing for settlement and determination at Step 2 of this grievance procedure within thirty (30) days from the date on which said dispute, complaint, or grievance first arose. Failure to respond to a grievance within thirty (30) days after receipt shall constitute a denial of the facts alleged in the grievance. Failure to comply in a timely fashion with requirements of Step 3 of this procedure shall also be deemed to constitute a waiver of the grievance.

Section 3. Any grievance shall be arbitrated in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association which are then in effect (except that in selecting an arbitrator from the lists supplied by the American Arbitration Association the parties shall strike names therefrom and the last name remaining shall be the arbitrator). The arbitrator of any such grievance shall have the power to receive relevant testimony from the parties to the dispute and to hear such witnesses as they may desire to present. The parties may, if they so desire, be represented by counsel in all proceedings had before the arbitrator. At the mutual request of the parties, the arbitrator shall hold a pre-hearing conference for the purpose of defining, simplifying, and framing the issue or issues to be arbitrated, and ascertaining the positions of the respective parties concerning said issues. The Company shall bear the cost of preparing and presenting its case to the arbitrator, and the Union shall bear the cost of preparing and presenting its case to the arbitrator. All other expenses of arbitration including, but not limited to, the arbitrator's fee, the cost of recording and transcribing testimony before the arbitrator, and the hiring of a space in which the arbitration proceedings are held, shall be divided equally between the parties.

Section 4. The function of the arbitrator shall be of a judicial rather than legislative nature. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to add to, or modify any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement. No decision of the arbitrator shall require the payment of a wage rate or wage basis different from those expressly set forth in this Agreement. Subject to the foregoing qualifications and limitations, the arbitrator's award shall be final and binding upon the Company, the Union, and any aggrieved employee.

Section 5. If the Union fails, refuses, or declines to prosecute a grievance on behalf of an employee, or if the Company and the Union settle any grievance on behalf of an employee hereunder, the employee who has filed such grievance or on whose behalf it has been filed shall be conclusively bound thereby and the Union and the aggrieved employee shall thereafter be estopped to revive or further prosecute said grievance. The Union shall not be deemed responsible for any violation by the Company of its obligations under the Agreement. However, if action or inaction taken by the Union regarding an employee grievance results in an increase in liability for the Company, beyond the liability which would have accrued had the grievance been taken to arbitration by the Union as provided for herein, then such additional liability shall fall upon the Union and not the Company. It is agreed that the time for processing a grievance under this Agreement for purposes of computing additional liability shall in no event exceed ninety (90) days from the date on which a written grievance is first filed or should have been filed.

Section 6. The Company shall have no duty to arbitrate any matter which arises subsequent to the termination date of this Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Section 7. In the event the Union declines for any reason to take a grievance to arbitration, then the Company and the Union may each request that any aggrieved employee sign a release in settlement of all claims which he or she may have under this Agreement. If such release is not obtained, then the party requesting such release will have thirty (30) days from the denial of the request to take the matter to arbitration.

ARTICLE XVI. Management Rights and Prerogatives.

All of the rights, functions and prerogatives of management are reserved and retained exclusively to the Company, except as provided in this Agreement. In no event shall any right, function or prerogative of management ever be deemed or construed to have been modified, diminished, or impaired by any past practice or course of conduct, otherwise than by an explicit provision of this Agreement. Specifically, but without in any manner limiting or affecting the generality of the foregoing, it is distinctly understood and agreed that the Company reserves to itself the right, in its sole discretion and judgment, to inter alia: determine the services to be rendered or carried on by the Company; determine whether and to what extent the work required in its business shall, other than barber or beauty services, be performed by employees covered by this Agreement; appoint working managers; determine the number of such managers which shall be required for the efficient operation of the business; determine the suppliers and customers with whom it will deal, and the prices at which and terms upon which its merchandise, equipment, and supplies will be purchased, leased or otherwise acquired and its services will be sold; determine the size and composition of the working force covered by this Agreement, the assignment of work, and policies affecting the selection of employees; establish and enforce quality and service standards for its services, establish new shops; discontinue existing shops; increase or decrease the size of the working force in a particular shop; introduce new and improved methods and facilities; change existing service methods and facilities; determine when and if vacancies in the working force shall be filled; and discontinue temporarily or permanently, in whole or in part, the operations and business covered or affected by this Agreement. The parties may agree from time to time to make and enforce new rules applicable to employees covered by this Agreement and to enforce, change, abolish or modify existing rules applicable to employees covered by this Agreement.

ARTICLE XVII. Successorship.

This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties hereto and on their respective successors, assigns and legal representatives, provided that the Company shall not incur any liability of any type whatsoever for the failure of any successor or assign to adhere to any provision of the Agreement or for the Company's failure to obtain the agreement of any successor or assign to adhere to any provision of this Agreement. Moreover, the Company's obligations with respect to the benefits, rights or privileges accorded by this Agreement to the Union or any employee covered by this Agreement shall not survive the termination of the Company's business operations at the barber shops covered by this Agreement. It is also recognized by the parties hereto that in the event that the Union shall hereafter affiliate with any other Union belonging to the AFL-CIO, it shall not be deemed there is a change in party affecting the validity of this Agreement and this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect for its duration as provided herein irrespective of such affiliation.

ARTICLE XVIII. Qualifications.

Each of the parties hereto warrants that it is under no disability of any kind that will prevent it from completely carrying out and performing each and all of the provisions of the Agreement, and further, that it will not take any action of any kind that will prevent or impede it in the complete performance of each and every provision hereof.

ARTICLE XIX. Waiver.

The waiver of any breach or condition of this Agreement by either party does not constitute a precedent of any further waiver of such breach or condition.

ARTICLE XX. Miscellaneous Provisions.

Section 1. This Agreement sets out the entire understanding between the Company and the Union and neither party intends to be bound or obligated except to the extent that it is expressly so agreed herein; this Agreement shall be strictly construed. This Agreement applies to bargaining unit employees working for the Company at its Ft. Sill barbershops. No employee covered by this Agreement shall have any rights, benefits or privileges in any other operation of the Company, now existing or hereafter established, by virtue of this Agreement. This Agreement may be changed or modified only by the written agreement of the parties hereto.

Section 2. If any provision contained herein is held to be invalid, or inoperative, the other provisions of this contract shall, nevertheless, remain full force and effect. It is the intention of the parties hereto to comply with all applicable provisions of law. All provisions of this Agreement shall be complied with unless any of such provisions shall be declared to be in conflict with or in violation of any state or federal statute, rule or decision or a valid administrative rule or regulation. In such event, the Union or the Company may, at its option, upon giving a twenty (20) day notice, require renegotiation of such provisions for the purpose of adequate replacement thereof, reserving the right of legal or economic recourse, including the right to strike or lockout, in the event agreement cannot be reached in such renegotiations.

Section 3. The Company agrees that where it is practical to do so, it will give barbers one week's advance notice before they are laid off.

Section 4. The employees covered hereby, where it is practical to do so, agree to give the Company one week's notice prior to the effective date of their quitting the employment of the Company.

ARTICLE XXI. Hours of Labor.

Section 1. The regular work week for any barber shall not exceed thirty-five (35) hours. However, the Company shall not be obligated to guarantee any minimum work week.

Section 2. The Company shall determine the number of barbers who shall be permitted to be off work on any day of the week in each branch.

Section 3. Working days and hours shall be scheduled by the Company. Within two weeks of the execution of this Agreement, a senior barber may bid for a job assignment having a greater number of hours than his/her present job assignment if he/she so chooses. Thereafter, if a senior barber has his/her hours reduced below the number of hours of a position held by a less senior barber, then the more senior barber may, within two weeks of the reduction of his/her hours, elect to bump into such position held by the less senior barber.

Section 4. All barbers will take a daily lunch period without pay, which lunch period shall be scheduled by the Company.

Section 5. No barber shall work in excess of seven hours in any one (1) day or thirty-five (35) hours in any week without the express written permission of the Company, nor shall the Company require this. Refusal to work overtime without express written permission shall not be grounds for discharge, discipline or harassment in any form by any Company representative. Violation of the terms of this section by an employee shall be grounds for discipline, including discharge, provided that the employee guilty of the infraction has received one (1) prior written warning for violating this section, except that overtime work by an employee at the direction of the base manager or other manager excluded from the collective bargaining unit shall not constitute a violation of this section. In order to effectuate the purposes of this section, the Company agrees that the line may be cut off fifteen (15) minutes before closing, provided that sufficient notification is given to a guide or to the customers themselves.

ARTICLE XXII. Duration of Contract and Reopening.

It is agreed that this contract shall be in force and effect from June 17, 2023 for a period of three (3) years ending on June 16, 2026. Should either party to this Agreement desire to negotiate changes in any or all of the provisions of this Agreement upon its expiration date, written notice to that effect must be given to the other party at least ninety (90) days before the date of expiration. If no opening notice is given as designated above, the Agreement shall run from year to year and can only be changed through negotiations started by written notice by one party to the other party at least ninety (90) days prior to any expiration date, that is, the annual anniversary date of this Agreement.
