

THE FINAL ROPE

by: CHRISTINE JOY B. RAMO

We have a weapon sharper than swords

It is what we call words

You may not hear us speak with full confidence

But it doesn't mean we will be devoured by silence.

We may be just students

But we know clearly how to be prudent

We see how injustice are being ruled

By the government, but we won't be fooled

Our national hero once told

We children are the hope

Hope of the nation to find the gold

And be the ones to tie the final rope.

We are children, we are the youth

We may not have the same power they hold

But we sure have the voice to speak the truth

And mend the ways of the old.

We are children, we are teens

We make everything possible by all means

We make decisions, we unite the nation

We choose the best possible foundation.

We are children, we are the voice

Voice of the people, voice of the nation

We have the power, we make the choice

To fully stop stagnation.

Hear our cries, wipe our tears

Prevent us from losing our hairs

To the last generation, we pray

Be wise, choose the proper way.

As your choices affect us too

Be mindful, please don't screw

The decisions made by you

Will reflect you and who?
