Kindle fire 7 instructions for dummies

For people who have never used an Fire Tablet before, sometimes referred to as a Kindle Fire, figuring out how to work it can be an incredibly difficult and frustrating task. The Fire Tablet is nothing like other tablets such as the iPad and Galaxy Tab, and is nothing like its Kindle counterpart either. Simple tasks such as browsing the web and using Fire apps can be difficult to a new user. Becoming familiar with the navigation and picking the right apps for you can become very costly if you don't know exactly how to use and manage your Fire tablet. Many people complain that they can't figure out how to watch movies or listen to music on their Fire tablet? Did you know that if you are an Amazon Prime member that you can watch thousands of TV shows, movies, and documentaries for free on your Fire? Or that you can listen to thousands of songs and artists for free as well? Furthermore, many people are unaware that you can use the Fire tablet to download thousands of books and read them straight from your device. Surfing the web on the Fire can be a simple and enjoyable experience. Knowing the basics of using the Silk Browser and fundamental web browsing tools will make surfing the web very easy. This includes using multiple tabs, setting bookmarks, accessing mobile sites instead of the desktop versions, and accessing a website's app instead of its mobile version for easier use. For a new Amazon Fire user, who has no experience with newer Amazon products, it can take several months to learn how to use most functions. The fact is, there is not much help out there for people who have not used tablets in the past. Many websites show marketing videos about all the cool things you can do with your Amazon Fire, not HOW to do it. Unfortunately, you will never be able to truly experience all the great things you can do with your Fire without a basic teaching showing you how to navigate it and control it. You may be able to take your Amazon Fire, play with it a little, and figure out how to take a picture, but do you know how to share that picture with your friends? Or how to instantly upload it to your Facebook profile or create a photo album? Or what about removing the red eye in your photos or cropping them?
