

VC Associate

At New Stack, we recently closed our $42M Fund II and are aggressively hunting for the most innovative, tenacious, and mission-driven founders outside of SF and NYC. To do this, we need help. VC has seen little innovation in the past two decades. New Stack is breaking the mold and seeking people with an irrational commitment to excellence. We are relentless in our selection of founders and committed to building the top VC between the coasts.

New Stack Ventures is seeking an Associate to start immediately. This individual will be a part of the Investment Team and responsible for the following:

- Dealflow Strategy and Tactics
  - Building out new strategic channels through relationships and technology
  - Sourcing, filtering, and pre-qualifying high-potential startups
- Deal Management, Diligence
  - Managing process, communications, deliverables required to complete new investments (pre and post-term sheet signing)
  - Coordinate with internal and external stakeholders to expedite the close of investments
- Portfolio Management
  - Streamline and manage the capital strategy process and Series A plan process for portfolio companies
- VC Branding
  - Market research and thesis development on sectors of interest
  - Content creation that promotes and expands the New Stack brand

Prospective candidates should have the following characteristics:

- Entrepreneurial, creative, resourceful, high EQ, high attention to detail, and strong networking skills

Finance, PE, investment banking, consulting, or those with entrepreneurial backgrounds are encouraged to apply. Two+ years of work experience is strongly preferred.
