Bitcoin and blockchain are the new internet technology with the potential to transform the financial industry and disrupt markets around the world. Attract top investors and partners by exhibiting your startup or ICO.

We explore the investment and technology landscapes in blockchain and cryptocurrencies, including ICOs, decentralized technologies, and bitcoin. Industry experts and founders will discuss the latest trends for tech, business, and fundraising. Learn why blockchain is creating the “internet of value” and has the potential to transform your industry.

Meet Accredited Investors

Sponsors receive private access to investors in Expo hall and meetings. Our events are unique since we know how to attract investors:

Accredited Investors Receive Comp Tickets

Our events attract qualified investors which includes accredited investors, high net worth individuals and angels, and institutional investors. Examples include:

- Angels, incubators, accelerators, VCs, private equity, institutional investors
- Banking, trading and brokerage firms, buy and sell side analysts
- Family offices, wealth managers, hedge funds, portfolio/wealth managers
- Verifiable crypto investors with 1M or more in crypto assets

We offer comp VIP tickets to accredited investors who agree to hold at least 30 minutes of private meetings with sponsors, and attend the VIP dinner.

Investor FastPitch Before Lunch

Investors are seated at tables before lunch for 30 minutes. All the presenters and VIP ticket holders stand in line for 3 minute meetings. The sponsor presenters stand in front of the line and have 6 minutes meetings with investors for up to 30 minutes. Everyone else who is VIP pitches after you.

VIP Investor Dinner 7-9pm

After the cocktail party at 7pm for speakers, VIPs and investors invited to exclusive dinner.

User Acquisition Sponsorship

We designed this unique category for tokens, ICOS or platforms that want to attract users, customers, downloads or registration for airdrop tokens.

Here is how this works:

We send out an email to our huge database offering either a free basic ticket (valued at $95) or if they are already registered, a code to upgrade to attend the VIP cocktail party if they use your link. We send a link to register on eventbrite and send you the list with full contact info. You then solicit them to sign up within a short time to create urgency. Once they have done so, you send us the confirmation list. We send them a code for a comp ticket. You can offer up to 200 comp tickets.

We send a message with something like-

"Next up for Community Airdrop – @XXXXX Pre-Register for XXX and you'll be eligible to have some XXX tokens airdropped to your new wallet once you create it! "

Or: " Register now for our platform and get a free ticket to attend . "
