Actress Edith Gonzalez, best known for her role in The Mexican Teleno in 2008, died last year at the age of 55. She plays the man's 'eater', and the news was then confirmed by her colleague on Twitter. There's no more pain than i feel now as a lovingly cuddling mom - wrote Leticia, famous for her role as Esmeralda. The actress was diagnosed with ovarian cancer and underwent several lymph node surgeries. In her last interview with The Mexican Press, she said she had a brave and 'strong' attitude, even though she did not regret herself. The actress was optimistic and that's why everyone thought she would run away in 2017. But in 2019, cancer is back. I don't want to talk about cancer, i want to talk about life, because it has nothing to do with disease, it doesn't affect or affect other difficult things in life, but i want to talk about touching you every day, whether it's illness or economic crisis. It is important to understand. Diseases that sound like death sentences should be reduced to one fact. So accept her and find out where she came from and what caused her - Edith continued to speak. Sometimes it's hard to find a cause, but at least you can find a way to get rid of it. Compassion does not help. You can't blame yourself, but you have to find exhaust valves, women like that. Then you need to think about what you do when you find yourself in an adverse situation. Shake her from the beginning, spend a good time and surround herself with the right people - she pointed out and added that she 'lets take everything you've come with.' at just 15 years old she played the spoiled Marisabel in a rich cry. She started her career in the television series The Poor, and in the early 1990s she played Monica in Wild Heart, where she played a minor role in the action film Señorita Justice, along with 45-year-old Eva Longoria and 45-year-old Eva Longoria. At first she tried to refuse the role of count, but after talking with her brother, she changed her mind. Later, she thanked him for her great success 23 years ago, when she was naked in the bathtub of the 'Golden Cage' Telenola, she caught the attention of many men, and she continued to follow her throughout her career. Edith left Senator Santiago Krill and a young girl Constanza with her. Video » Foreign Translation Series » Donna Barbara » Episode 158
