As the orientation went on the school principal manifested bridges of understanding by pointing out that the orientation even in the classroom with their children’s adviser is an avenue for them to ask questions and clarify the policies of the school so that they are properly guided throughout the years of stay in school.

She ended the orientation by leaving a quotation “Kayang -kaya ang mga Gawain Basta Sama-Sama” that would remind everyone that BECS should be a strong Bridge of parents and teachers to make a difference in the lives of learners for a Brighter FUTURE.
