Princess And The Frog: The Story

The Princess and the Frog is a retelling of the classic fairy tale "The Frog Prince". The story follows Tiana, a hardworking waitress in New Orleans who dreams of opening her own restaurant. When a voodoo spell turns her into a frog, she must find a prince to kiss her before midnight to break the spell.

The film is notable for its use of jazz and hip-hop music, as well as its emphasis on New Orleans culture. It also features the voice talents of Anika Noni Rose as Tiana, courtroom as Prince Naveen, and John McEnery as Dr. Facilier.

The story is told through Tiana's perspective, with scenes from her childhood and present-day New Orleans. The film also features a number of musical numbers, including "My Uptown Girl" and "When You Wish Upon a Star".
