questionnaire is little an internal swot analysis is complete and how we trying to increased performance on the task the marketing team with the help of various analysis and competitor research. Your marketing team can run a quick survey of your current customers to find areas that need improvement. The survey should include questions about the product or service's performance, customer satisfaction, and any suggestions for improvement. The results of the survey can be used to identify key metrics and create a strategic plan for your business. The survey should be designed in a way that makes it easy for customers to complete and return. The data collected from the survey can be analyzed to determine the most important areas for improvement. The strategic plan can then be created to address these areas. The plan should include specific goals, actions, and timelines. The plan should be reviewed by the management team and shared with the employees. The plan should be constantly evaluated and adjusted as necessary. The plan should be communicated to all stakeholders to ensure that everyone is aware of the goals and actions.
