Powered by Showtime and Ticketing PV has the only theater in the Harkins region. The next stop is the theater about 45 minutes away in Cottonwood. It can make for a place that you have no real choice, but Harkins doesn't care since salvation. People at the ticket window are always good and smiling. Ticket buyers are friendly and make sure you know which way your theatre is. The food counter is clean and the servers are smiling. Prices are theaters, but no more than I see in other theaters. The theatres themselves are clean and the seats are in good repair. All seats are recliner style with movable armrest. Prices for movies are very reasonable and first-time running movies can be seen without long lines on The Dawn of Saturn or The Sun they are released. Overall I've never been disappointed with the theater when I watch a movie there (some movies on the other hand...
