The description of Allah is not due to Ahmad Kuruma PDF Allah is not obliged is fiction, action, thriller and epic novel that describes the story of a little boy who is forced to fight gangs. Ahmad Kuruma is the author of this remarkable novel. Birahima is a ten-year-old boy and his mother died of an infected disease. Now he is all alone in the village and is thinking about going somewhere else. It's time to approach her aunt Mahan, who lives in a city across the border. The border is overrun by gangs and apparently by insurgents. They are facing the government and they are not allowing anything to happen here. When he tried to cross the Liberian border, he caught up with the rebels. There are two options for these rebels, first, to kill them, and secondly, to force him into military service. Now, Birahimais is an active member of these rebels and he has received a weapon. There are many other boys and they are in the same condition. They all lose hope of returning home. Birahima received a small amount of food and began his duty at the border. He saw many deaths, bloodshed, causes, torture and the madness of the people. Birahima is also part of this culture, he never misses his mother and thinks to go to his aunt. Allah is not obliged to PDF By:Ahmadou KouroumaPublished on 2011-06-01 by AnchorALLAH not DUTY BE FAIR ABOUT ALL THINGS HE does here on EARTH. These are the words of a boy soldier Birahima in the final masterpiece of one of Africa's most famous writers, Ahmad Kurum. When the mother of ten-year-old Birahim dies, he leaves his home village in Ivory Coast, accompanied by a sorcerer and chef Yakuba, to find his aunt Mahan. Crossing the border into Liberia, they are captured by the rebels and forced into military service. Birahim receives a Kalashnikov assault rifle, minimal food rations, a small supply of doping and a tiny salary. Fighting in a chaotic civil war with many other boys, Birahim sees death, torture, dismemberment and madness, but somehow manages to maintain his sanity. Raw and unforgettable, desperate but filled with laughter, Allah is not obliged to show how children's and young people are compromised by war. From Trade Paperback.
