DOWNLOAD Win(Official Translation): MEGA Win(Fan Translation): MEGA Hello everyone, I completed a translation for Tobihime a while ago (like 6 months ago), but I don't know if it's ever propagated here This is a full translation, to the best of my knowledge and subject. Simply copy via the files in the link below via installing a Tobihime 2.04 to patch everything in English. I'm pretty done with it now, don't think there's anything else to translate, except the cg gallery, which is easy to understand anyway, I'm fine with people who upload it somewhere else or work to improve it links: Patch Link - DLsite Link - ULMF main thread link - (translation jumps out of the box) surprise! Me: Aaah! (Jumps out of the window in fear) I wanted to play this game for ages, thanks for the translation! So, to be sure, isn't there a version of this game that's right like 4gigs? Because I see one that's on version 2.04, I think? So, to be sure, isn't there a version of this game that's right like 4gigs? Because I see one that's on version 2.04, I think? Yes, this is the latest version of what I got myself. There has been no update for almost a year and is probably finished. The link for the translation patch is dead. Can anyone who has it upload it again? FOLLOW US Page 2 FOLLOW US (Warning of reading is goals in adults 18+ only!) Japanese Game Developers: Hmm People Like RPGs... Angry birds... and sex right? Why not put them all in one game! This is the H-game, I happened to come across lol. I thought I was trying to make my first 'guide' or even touch the mechanics because the game was interesting. The animation in the game is really really good, and it's really cool how they mix 2D characters with an interactive 3D background. The unique mechanics also make it like fucking - along with the cool fuck... Oh and the music is surprisingly really soothing and amazingly good. New discovery: Some of the garments you equip change their appearance. *Thumbs up* (pictures below in 'Spoiler's Section) P.S I'm not Japanese, so I couldn't really understand the game. Usually when I play Japanese games, I do quite a lot of trial and error

then do my best to adjust/interpret what the hell goes on lol. Original Game Guide Link. If you get bored of reading at some point, scroll to the 'FUN STUFF', where I talk about breeding mechanics ☺ of what I could 'guess' – the story is about a princess/queen who is enslaved and raped by a slime. With the help of her two newborn mucus children, she manages to escape from the dungeon. As in the games title Inter Breed - is exactly what you do during the game. The purpose of the game is to find villains (creatures) with whom they can fuck/breed to build your team to defeat the last boss. Queen fights to escape the enemies castle with her new children. Blue Queen successfully escapes and is now on a journey for 'revenge'? This game is pretty simple and it comes with levels of Normal, Hart and Maniac. I finished the games 'history' of playing all 'Normal' mode - I think it took me less than 5 hours? (But I polished). After you've selected the stage you want to play, you'll be taken to the battlefield on a seramert. This is where the 'Angry Bird' mechanics come to the game. Just like in Angry Birds, you successfully finish/win the stage if you defeat all 'Leader's in every round and phase. The first stages you play always have about 1 to 3 laps, which you have to complete to the end – the later stages go up to 5 rounds. To defeat these villains, hold down the left-click button on the mouse, drag down and let go! The difference between this game and Angry Birds, is that this is an RPG aka Fighting involved. At the beginning of your turn, you always start with two starts before the opponents attack! Each villain/creature has its own unique attack (they have only one type of attack). For example, mucus noclaterors do not move and break out a small explosion – if you are in this area, you will be hit and will suffer damage. So there are two ways to lose in this game - 1. You no longer have players to 'start', 2. All your players are dying. But you still lose, even if your players live on the field (So 2nd doesn't matter that much – your death will make it harder for you to win – what each character on your team has a specific 'special move' that they can use when you enter 'Left Click' after starting the character. For example, the Blue Queen can be when you click on the left. Another example, their blue slime, after takeoff can do a diagonal crash (in the direction you start / point with the arrows). There is also another unique mechanic in this game – passive abilities; After the character lands/finishes on the ground (after a turn), their passive special ability will expire. For example, the Blue Queen automatically jumps a certain distance from the enemy and then crashes again to damage it. However, you can't control the characters after they've started, so make sure you start the characters in a good combat position). Each character has only 1 passive special ability. The passive special ability of the Queen's blue mucus allows them to roll a certain distance from the enemy and damage them. Blue Queen is launched towards the Big Blue Slime. Blue Queen performs her Left Click special train as it launches. (Special: Plummets straight down) Note: You can still win the round if you only kill the 'leader'. Killing additional monsters along the way will give you more Exp at the end of the stage. (More exp = more levels = stronger characters = easy play). Once you have successfully completed the laps and completed the stage, you will come to this result screen. The amount of Exp you receive at the end is evenly distributed. The blue diamond in the left corner is the EXP area, on the right is a light green text with a 0 that shows how much exp you get. (I have already clicked 'next' on the page, so it says 0). The white numbers on the right side of the characters is the amount of exp they need to ascend. For example, in this image, the Blue Queen needs 39 more exp to reach level 10. In the middle is the gold coin – or in this game is 'pec's. Again, because I've already clicked Next, it appears as 0Pec, and the white numbers indicate how much money you currently have. The coins you collect are used to buy items for your characters. The stars don't really mean much, it's just for perfectionists. But basically, if you can meet the requirements of the stage, e.g. collect 14 coins or even kill 8 monsters, then you will be rewarded a star. To be on the safe side, simply collect all the gold coins you see and defeat all the monsters. When you complete the phase for the first time, you will receive a reward item. (In my case, it was the red staff). In the upper right half of the screen are the chests you collected after defeating the monsters and the items they open. The very lower Corner with the character in it means that I have successfully bred with a monster – and as a result I have bred the Purple Bird Girl. I will go into more details below. Results screen completed after the phase. Star rating, items from chests, lvl up, gold gold Race Update After the results screen you will be taken back to the world map. And you have the following options: the shop, your inventory/equipment and your team. This is the Shop - Purchase Screen where you can buy items for your characters and view the item statistics. Shop - Purchase screen. Weapons, etc. This is the shop sales screen where you can sell items you don't need. (I can't read Japanese, so I just kept everything or sold things with lower numbers lol) Shop - Sales screen. This is the Inventory/Equipment screen where you can customize your teams and view items in specific categories such as Attack, HP, etc. On the Team screen, you can view your current team or decide who to use for a specific phase. A picture of my team can be found in the Spoilers section below. | FUN STUFF | Okay ittttts time... To.. get the fuck out. Jokes. But really, this is where the whole breeding aka sex happens. Bird breeding BirdBreeding 2 Breeding mechanics: This is how it works. Caution! Breeding can be dangerous! In breeding, the character you choose is knocked out... or more as if battered – and will not be able to take part in the battle until the end of the stage. Breed only if you know you can finish the stage without this character! Also, you can only breed in stages after level 1 – (1-3), so level 1 - (1-4) should be your first love-struck or buddy. (I also created a list where you can find simple breed monsters in the spoiler section below) Easy Steps – Choose Mother + Love Hearty Monster & Start Mother in Love Heart Monster (Make sure you don't attack with your left-click special). & Wait a round & Kill Leader and then try to finish the game as soon as possible before you lose, otherwise you will need to start the process again. If you kill the leader before you are filled with sperm, you will not end up having the child. So make sure the character is K.O'd. P.S You can breed with any creature in the game. You can also create cool combos/races for e.g. the minotaur child + orc. GOTTA BREED'EM ALL! Thorough Steps to Breeding & Tips – First, you need to find a monster/creature that has love hearts around you. From what I've noticed, 'Leader' it won't be affected, so you're looking for non-leader monsters! My short circuit for breeding is to have the stage refreshing or reset until you find the hearts. You can reset the stage by clicking the Pause button in the lower-right corner of the screen. (Click on first option in this menu - the second one takes you back to the world map). Love at first sight. Love-struck. No... Fuck at first sight. Fuck-struck. What you want to do now is decide who, from your characters you want to breed the children change their colors only if they have different mothers, e.g. if you decide to breed the Blue Queen with the bird, it will give you a blue bird child, Purple Queen will give you a purple bird child etc. Spoilers Kinda: There are only 5 main mothers with the colors blue, purple, green, yellow and red. Note: It doesn't matter what color the creatures are, the children will always end up like the same color that the 'mother' was. It would have been really cool if the kids had looked a bit different (apart from the colors to say who belongs to whom). Always bangs ... Bird brain. Start your character now into the monster you want, with love hearts and it will fuck the shit out of you! (Without attacking the monster). Do not forget, make sure that you do not kill the guide immediately in this turn, otherwise it will skip the breeding process. You have to wait for this scene to happen (with the sperm) to know if it was successful. The monster should fuck you so hard that you fly away. (because this really happens lol) Sperm Attack = Success! If your character dies, that's a good sign for the successful breeding LOL. Do now your best to survive until the results screen. Good luck! (If you want to read hidden mechanics, read on – if not, don't worry, it's not required to complete the game in normal mode – but it will help a lot) Get fucked so hard until you die. Literally. This scene made lol so difficult for me. Additional Mechanics: In the game there is also a scissors paper rock mechanics – depending on which color struggles with what will determine the damage output – but in general, if your characters are strong, it's not that big from a business. However, if you plan to dominate this game, then yes, it's a very different story. Oh and the harder the stages, the better rewarded/equipment.
