

ON THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE NOVEMBER 1969 MOBILIZATION TO END THE VIETNAM WAR

THE WAR COMES HOME

November 13, 2019 • 12-2 PM

The Significance of the Historic 1969 Moratorium and Mobilization

Learn and discuss the political impact of the millions of people who rallied in the Fall of 1969 to oppose the US war in Vietnam - the largest protests in American history at the time. Hear first-hand from people who were there and who organized the demonstrations.

REV. RICHARD FERNANDEZ - former director, Clergy and Laity Concerned about Vietnam

MARTHA NOONAN - social justice activist, Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee

ROBERT LEVERING - author and former staff of New Mobe that coordinated 1969 events

ANNE GALLIVAN - local DC activist, Anti-War History Project and VPCC

MARY POSNER - local Moratorium organizer, Ball State, Indiana

CLARA BINGHAM - author, "Witness to the Revolution"

JOHN MCAULIFF - moderator, Fund for Reconciliation and Development, VPCC

Elliott School, George Washington University
1957 E Street NW, Room 505, Washington, DC

Closest Metro: Foggy Bottom-GWU and Farragut West.

ORGANIZED BY Vietnam Peace Commemoration Committee (VPCC) as part of the PISA/Elliott School November 11-15 Waging Peace in Vietnam Conference

DETAILS & REGISTER • pisa.elliott.gwu.edu/events/

THE AMERICAN WAR IN VIETNAM: THEN AND NOW

November 15, 2019 • 8:30 AM - 5:45 PM

An all-day symposium to discuss the US war in Vietnam, the movement that helped end it, and the war's costly legacies today

Among the speakers: Seymour Hersh, noted author and journalist; Christian Appy, history professor; Tran Thi Hoan, Agent Orange survivor; Cora Weiss, Hague Appeal for Peace; Nguyen Lien-Hang, history professor; Susan Schnall, Vietnam Veteran; Ho Van Lai and Nguyen Phu, Mine Action Visitors Center; Michael Kazin, history professor; and Chuck Searcy, Project Renew.

Free Vietnamese lunch included

Elliott School, George Washington University
1957 E Street NW, Room 602, Washington, DC

MARCH AGAINST DEATH • 50TH ANNIVERSARY

November 15, 2019 • 6 PM

On the night of Friday, Nov 14, 1969, 40,000 protesters walked from Arlington National Cemetery wearing the names of dead US soldiers and destroyed Vietnamese villages and deposited their names in coffins in front of the White House. On Friday, Nov 15, 2019, we will remember that moving night by walking to the White House for a candlelight vigil, reading the names of Vietnamese dead and villages destroyed.

With Rep. Jamie Raskin and folk singer Peter Yarrow

Assemble at 6 PM after the conference in front of GWU's Elliott School

THE VIETNAM PEACE COMMEMORATION COMMITTEE (VPCC)

The 50th anniversary of the Vietnam War (2015-2025) provides a unique opportunity to look back at the most unpopular war in American history and the powerful movement that helped to end it. VPCC was formed in September 2014 to ensure that the truth is told about the war and that the lessons learned are shared in order to avoid other disastrous interventions. Join with us for events in 2020, commemorating killings at Kent State and Jackson State & national student strike.

SIGNUP on our website and DONATE to support our ongoing efforts.

www.vietnampeace.org

terryprovance@gmail.com
202-686-7483 and 202-258-9562