'A house was given') Index of contents Video: passive voice Rewrite the sentences in Passive voice. Show example The cat chased the mouse. Answer: The mouse is chased. Or: The mouse is chased by the cat. In passive voice of simple present tense of affirmative sentence, we use auxiliary verb am /is /are with past participle that is third form of verb. In this topic, we shall discuss the formation and changing active to passive voice of simple present tense. Passive Voice of Simple Present Tense- Formation In this, we use helping verb according to the subject that is 'I' if subject of passive voice is first person and singular number that is 'I', we use helping verb 'am'. 'for subject of third person and singular number that is 'he, she or it', helping verb 'is' is used if subject is plural or second person, we use helping verb 'are'. In passive voice of simple present tense -positive, negative, interrogative and negative interrogative-, we use past participle (third form) of verb. Keep in mind that we should arrange the sentence in the following form- Active sentence- subject + am /is /are+base form of verb + object Passive sentence- object of the active sentence + am /is /are + past participle (third form) of the verb + by + subject of the active sentence

Example: Active sentence: She draws a picture today. (draw- base form) Passive sentence: A picture is drawn today. (drawn- past participle) For more information about the transformation of active to passive voice, see the changes in the transformation of active to passive voice. (Object of active form (picture) became subject. Subject 'she' became object- 'her').
