

FRIEND OF THE MARKETPLACE

THE PSYCHIC TOWN

Dennis Hermanzo

Suggested Retail Price: $75

CLICK HERE TO PURCHASE

THE AD COPY:

The wait is finally over! Dennis Hermanzo, author of the acclaimed 'The Mystery Man', unveils his most ambitious work yet - The Psychic Town. This large, 366-page, hardcover, US Letter-sized book, transcends the mentalism book concept as only a few others have, by fusing fiction with non-fiction.

Denise Manzo, a skeptical Danish journalist, is tasked with uncovering the truth behind Copenhagen's mystical and psychic reputation. As she delves deeper into the city's underbelly, she encounters a captivating cast of characters, each with their own unique psychic abilities. Each chapter unveils a new mentalism routine, seamlessly integrated into the narrative.

All contents of Jheff's Guide ©2025 Jheff (Jeff Poncher). No part of this publication may be reproduced, distributed, or transmitted in any form or by any means without the express written permission of the author.

Jheff's MARKETPLACE OF THE MIND

Explore 27 powerful effects, from stage illusions to close-up miracles, and then delve into the explanations behind the mysteries. Plus there are 7 insightful essays by Dennis on the art and acts of mentalism. The book features an intro by Steve Drury and foreword by Neal Scryer.

The Psychic Town is an essential addition to any mystery or psychic performer's library.

Produced, edited, and cover design, by Steve Drury.
Published by Inner Rapport Publishing.

JHEFF'S GUIDE

WHAT IT IS:

Hardcover Book, 366 pages, 9" x 12" (approx), no dust jacket,

HOW ACCURATE OR COMPLETE THE AD COPY IS:

It's accurate enough as the 5-page Table of Contents would make the ad copy quite long. One helpful thing to do is that the first half of the book is presented as a fictional narrative involving a journalist named Denise who's assigned by her boss, Mr. Hernan to investigate the paranormal goings on in Copenhagen. Throughout, she has experiences which are mysteries. The second half of the book explains those mysteries as well as some essays on the subject.

MY COMMENTS

Dennis Hermanzo consistently delivers inspiring theatrical experiences, and this book doesn't break the streak, although it's quite different in structure than most you'll read. It's a huge 366 page, 9" x 12" (approx.) book, no dust jacket. The first half of the book comprises a fictional narrative that involves a journalist named Denise who's assigned by her boss, Mr. Hernan to investigate the paranormal goings on in Copenhagen. There are nearly three dozen chapters filled with routines and mysteries. In the second half of the book, Dennis provides the explanations for the mysteries described in the first half.

Jheff's MARKETPLACE OF THE MIND

The routines themselves run the gamut of the classics and the expected mentalism plots. Running down each of them would make my comments extremely long and I don't think that's necessary. Dennis does not shy away from using plots that are well-established crowd pleasers and there's absolutely nothing wrong with that. If you're looking for new techniques or principles, though, this may be a disappointment. However, this is a fun, unique read and it certainly put some ideas in my head that I may use later to adapt to my work. I'm sure you'll get something out of this, too.

IMPORTANT ORDERING NOTES

The shopping cart is currently inactive while the site undergoes updates. In the meantime, please follow these ordering instructions:

- Use PayPal or Zelle to send payment to Jheffsmind@gmail.com
- Include your name, shipping address, and a list of items that you wish to purchase
- Be sure to add shipping/handling to your total (See below)

Shipping:

- $10 flat rate for Priority Mail within the U.S.
- Free shipping on orders of $100 or more
- International orders: Please inquire for rates based on destination and packaging

If you are an active member of Jheff's Marketplace of the Mind, please inquire before ordering to receive a custom-made offer.

If you have any additional questions or comments, don't hesitate to contact me at Jheffsmind@gmail.com.

Thank you for your patience and support,
Jheff