

In Everything Give Thanks

By Lennox Zamore, Senior Pastor

I. The C_____ of Thanksgiving

- 1 Thessalonians is one of Paul's earliest letters written in A.D. 50–52) to a church that was going through severe p_____.

II. The C_____ About Thanksgiving

A. Thanksgiving Is a M_____

- Thanksgiving is a continual a_____ formed in the heart of someone who recognizes God's s_____ at all times and in all circumstances.

B. Thanksgiving Is a P_____

- Gratitude is the heart's recognition that God is sovereign and in total c_____.
- A grateful heart is confident in the K_____ ability and remains steady through t_____, d_____, l_____, and u_____.

C. Thanksgiving Is a F_____

- A grateful heart is the key that opens the door into God's p_____.
- Thanksgiving aligns your heart with divine o_____ rather than the c_____ of circumstances.
- When you are grateful in every circumstance, it creates a constant worship atmosphere of p_____, h_____, j_____, and e_____.
- When you give thanks in all things, the K_____ takes His rightful place in your circumstances.
- His peace replaces you're a_____, His wisdom replaces your c_____, His authority replaces your f_____, and thanksgiving releases the g_____ of God into the atmosphere.

D. Thanksgiving Is a D_____

Gratitude is first a decision not an e_____. It must first be a d_____, then a m_____, then a d_____, then a p_____, and finally a l_____.

E. Thanksgiving is a P_____

- A grateful heart is a y_____ heart. A complaining heart is a r_____ heart.
- Thanksgiving is a posture from which m_____ arise.

III. The C_____ to Thanksgiving

A. Thanksgiving is the W_____ of God

B. Thanksgiving is a W_____ God

IV. The C_____ of Thanksgiving

A. "In Christ Jesus" Means a V_____ Identity

B. "In Christ Jesus" means an E_____ Identity

C. "In Christ Jesus" Means a T_____ Identity

D. "In Christ Jesus" Means a K_____ Identity

Let Gratitude Be Your Attitude

Let gratitude be your attitude, a rhythm your heart learns to play.
A quiet strength, a gentle flame, that brightens every day.

Let gratitude be your attitude when skies grow gray with rain.
For even clouds that block the sun are watering seeds of gain.

Let gratitude be your attitude when blessings overflow.
For thankful hearts remember well the Source from whom they flow.

Let gratitude be your attitude when trials press you low.
For faith sees more than what is seen, and trust learns how to grow.

Let gratitude be your attitude, a compass in the night.
For praise refocuses the soul, and guides it toward the Light.

Let gratitude be your attitude, your posture and your song.
For joy is born in thankful hearts, and hope keeps marching on.

Let gratitude be your attitude—in little things, in great.
For God is good in all His ways, and His timing never late.

Let gratitude be your attitude, the fragrance of your days.
For life becomes a sacred gift when viewed through thankful praise.

So let gratitude be your attitude—a lifestyle, deep and true.
For when your heart stays full of thanks, God's peace stays full in you.

