

Siena Mullican is an alumnus of B. Funk's Company and Crew competition teams and is currently pursuing a BFA in Dance at Point Park University. She started her dance training at 8 years old in hip hop classes at BFunk and began taking ballet, jazz, and contemporary dance when she was 14. She has received scholarships from various dance conventions/competitions including Monsters of Hip Hop, Deviate, Wild Dance Intensive, NRG, and Starpower. Siena assists and teaches a wide variety of styles at B. Funk. Her passion continues to grow and she enjoys sharing her love for dance with others.
