

June 27,
13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ten years ago at noon July 6, 2011, I officially became the pastor of St. Patrick and Mary Queen of Heaven. I remember moving here. Melissa Lucas had arranged for the youth group and a few other parishioners to help me unload. People brought me meat, eggs, and spices for cooking. I certainly felt welcomed. As I prepare to retire I look back at two things, my time here in Wheatland and the bigger picture of my 34 years of priesthood serving the diocese of Cheyenne. As a priest I am frequently invited into families in ways others are not. I have buried your loved ones who have died, baptized your children, welcomed you into the church and baptized some of you through RCIA. I have taught you and your children, ate with you laughed with you and worshiped with you. It is with sadness and anticipation that I depart and enter into retirement.

I am grateful for the friendships I have formed and for the opportunities you have given to me to minister to you and with you, for your acceptance and love over the past ten years. I love I felt that first day here with all the help I had for unpacking. I learned a long time ago that Wyoming is a lot like the military in that you don't say goodbye, it is always 'till we meet again. So for now I will say God bless you and be with you 'till we meet again. I will continue to pray for all of you and ask for your prayers also.

Sincerely in Christ

Fr. Tom.
