Step-by-step Instructions for preparing IGNOU appointment candidates are asked to read every item carefully to prevent errors when writing the IGNOU assignment. We have created point wise instructions so that you can read and understand it easily. Point-1: Use only foolscap size paper or A4 size paper to write your assignments. Do not use thin paper. Item 2: Leave at least one or more lines after completing one answer so that the evaluator can write a helpful comment on empty areas. Paragraph-3: We recommend using a government document instead of blank paper to write your assignment, because it is also recommended by IGNOU officials. Point-4: Candidates can use a black or blue pen for job assignments any TEE session. Paragraph 5: Candidates are not allowed to use a red pen or a pen of another color. Item-6: The best handwriting also benefits for the best marking in the work of the destination. Point-7: Candidates must write their assignments with their hand. Item-8: Don't print or type tasks with a computer that's not allowed. Paragraph 9: They cannot copy their response from any units/blocks given by the university. If you have copied any answer, you will receive a zero rating for this copied question. Paragraph 10: Applicants must write an appointment decision with your own help, if you have copied any assignments from other students, your assignment will be rejected by the center. Point-11: Prepare or write each course assignment separately. Don't write every job in one set. Paragraph 12: Write each question before answering so you don't have to attach a question paper when you submit a job. Point-13: Once you've finished writing the job, use a paper file and arrange all your assignments properly. (Note: The plastic file will not be accepted by the university under any circumstances). Paragraph-14: The candidate must be referred to the coordinator of the dedicated training centre. You can't send to any other IGNOU center like Regional Center, Assessment Division, and Registration for evaluation. Paragraph-15: It is noted that candidates must submit their appointment in person so that you cannot send it by email, mail or courier. Note - Because of the lockout in India, the university has started accepting IGNOU Appointment by email or online Point-16: Be sure to get a receipt to submit the job. Point-17: Once your assignments are submitted to the coordinator, they send confirmation to the training center. Item-18: If you have applied to change your training center, then you must send your assignments to the original center until you have received any confirmation from the University of The Change Learning Center. If you have received a notification from the university about the successful change of center, you can apply to a new center. That's it. Instructions for prescribing the IGNOU cover to develop the IGNOU destination cover page The first page of the job is very important. It should be attractive and at the same time it should follow the format prescribed by the university. Here are some recommendations to help you make your first page job flawless just like the format released by the University on its official website. The first page should contain the following information. The name Roll Number Address Appointment Course Number Training Center Program Date Submission Phone Number Email Id Your Signature Appointment should be submitted on the A4 size sheet. And it should be hand-written by students in any course. The answers can be written on either side of the paper. When writing answers, students can only write a question number, not write the whole question. But it is best to write the whole question so that understanding is better. Note: - You cannot submit printed or printed assignments. IGNOU only accepts handwritten assignments. Some other samples of IGNOU Appointment First Page IGNOU Appointment Cover Samples All this information should be included in the IGNOU destination front or cover page. If you turn on all this information, the chances of losing or inappropriateness of your assignment decrease. If you lose an assignment in any way you will not be given extra time to complete it and this will result in fewer marks. You don't have to take risks with the format and follow it exactly according to the recipe students put in a lot of hard work to do the job and submit it on time. It should be remembered that the assignment is prepared for the preparation of final exams, after which the university intends to do so. Following the appropriate format will help the appraiser follow all the instructions that should follow when evaluating student signs. There is a provision to place the job in the student center, not to give it manually. This is for students who are hosts and cannot travel long distances to submit a task.
