WARNING: contents may have an eternal effect in changing your life and others.

You may not know it yet, but perhaps the greatest challenge of your life is before you now - the greatest spectacle of history is near. This book is a crash course on God's heart, designed to encourage and challenge the Christian to have increased awareness and ownership in the Great Commission.

Page by page, a chronological journey from God's word is blended with timely testimonies. An urgent missionary call is set forth. Confident, convicting and comforting words melt church pews into starting blocks of service in the race of faith. It's time to jump from the bleachers and dash into eternity. There's no time for sugar coating. Nap time is not promoted. There's only time for God's compassionate truth.

Conviction comes from the Holy Spirit, so let these challenges question, confront and let them dare. Some may mistake the devil's line that you can't be involved in the missionary journey. But, God has a part for everyone in His mission plan. He is so flexible, so innovative, so powerful, so patient, so purposeful that he will empower you with His Spirit, if only you're willing to get your feet wet and walk with Him. So dare to answer the call to action. Dare to make a world of difference. Dare to make your great ambition God's Great Commission.

Inspiring Bible Verses Matching Today's Date

There are four warnings that I often give to people who are considering missionary work. Firstly your heart will be broken many times and you will face many disappointments. Secondly you will face financial pressures, battles and problems and also a wide range of differences of opinion on life-style and how money should be spent. Thirdly you will discover that it is sometimes relatively easy to get started on a project but unbelievably hard to keep it going and at the same time keep the loyalty of the people with whom you are working. Fourthly you will discover that roots of bitterness can come in very easily in Christian work which, sometimes, due to Satanic opposition, can be more difficult and complex than in secular work, especially when money and other motivating forces are absent. This is not intended to be discouraging.

There will also be, of course, blessings and joy over breakthroughs in answer to prayer. Missions work can mean a lot of fun. Many of the missionaries I know are grace-awakened people who know how to get the most out of their lives. Keeping a balance though between faith goals and unrealistic expectations is part of the process of counting the cost.

Life Tithe...

Let's look at an average 70 year life span and consider tithing 10% of your life to God for cross cultural mission work. Refunding the first 20 years for training, 10% of 50 years is 5 years of mission work over a 70 year life span. How about serving 3 years after retirement, leaving a timely 2 year term now wherever you are in life to serve God in missions.

70 - 20 = 50 10% of 50 = 5 years 3 after retirement, 2 years now

I believe that in each generation God has called enough men and women to evangelize all the yet unreached tribes of the earth. It is not God who does not call. It is man who will not respond!

A Christian missionary is a person whose passion is to make the Lord Jesus known to the whole world.

I believe that "being a missionary" in the truest sense of the word is taking the Gospel where it has never been before, or at least to a different culture or a different language group.

A true missionary is someone who will risk everything for the sake of the lost of the this world.

Missing out on God is hell in a nutshell. Being in the absence of God's great love and his extraordinary fellowship will be the biggest torment and torture in hell, not the frenzy of fire and flames. #### Show me a church or a Christian organization that emphasizes prayer, and I'll show you a ministry where people are excited about Jesus Christ and are witnessing for Him. On the other hand, show me a church or Christian cause where there is little emphasis on prayer, and I will show you worldly Christians who have little interest in the souls of men and women. Their lives can best be described by the experience of the Church of Ephesus and the Church of Laodicea in Revelation 2 and 3.

George @ George Verwer.com

George Verwer lives his passion recruiting and encouraging churches to follow the Acts 13 example of sending out missionaries into the harvest fields. He is the founder of Operation Mobilisation, a ministry of evangelism, discipleship training and church planting he led for 40 years. He and his wife, Drena, have three adult children and are now involved in Special Projects Ministries full-time. George's mission work has taken him all over the world both in travel and through prayer.

When not using his mobile phone you can find him speaking to thousands of young people. God uses 80-year-old + George to stretch once preconceived notions about missions and God's priority of reaching the world for Christ.

Upon his teenager conversion he said, 'Only one thing I want in life – I want to learn to pray, to love you, I want to know you and commune with you.' He has not moved from that principle.

George shares the Christian revolution of love and balance right around the world. He starts at home emphasizing the need to worship God, live in fellowship with one another by walking in the light, and live a disciplined life of victory as forgiven, repentant, Cross-centered Christians.

As the author of several inspiring books, his staple book, "Out of The Comfort Zone" is challenging people all over God's globe. His recent titles include "Messiology" and "Drops From A Leaking Tap". He also co-wrote "God's Great Ambition" and "Surviving Temptation Island" with brothers
