Privacy Policy

The purpose of our Data Protection and Privacy Policy is to outline how we deal with any personal data you provide to us while visiting our website and throughout the course of various interactions pre, post and during your membership with Drogheda Chamber. By visiting our website, you are accepting the terms of this Data Protection and Privacy Policy. Any external links to other websites are clearly identifiable as such, and we are not responsible for the content or the privacy policies of these other websites. Naturally, if you are not happy with this policy you should not use this website and you should inform the Team at Drogheda Chamber immediately, as this may affect how Drogheda Chamber interacts with you as an individual and a member company.

General Statement

Drogheda Chamber respects your right to privacy and will not collect any personal information about you on this website without your clear permission. Any personal data that you volunteer to Drogheda Chamber, if retained, will be held on secure servers and will only be used to better our service offering. The nature of the Internet is such that we cannot guarantee or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us via the Internet. No data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. However, we will take all reasonable steps (including appropriate technical and organisational measures) to protect your personal data.

Collection and Use of Personal Data

Personal data is data that identifies you or can be used to identify or contact you and may include, for example, your name, address or e-mail address. Drogheda Chamber does not collect any personal data about you from this website, apart from information that you volunteer (for example by e-mailing us or by completing any of our online forms or physical application form). This personal data that you volunteer to us will be processed for the following purposes: To contact you in relation to our events programme, general news from Drogheda Chamber and other communications from Drogheda Chamber deemed to be of possible interest to you, as an individual and/or company; To contact you in response to communications you might send us; To provide you with the information / service you have requested; To send you email alerts and newsletters that you have opted-in to receive by filling in our online forms or contacting us by email or by other means. We also provide the facility to opt-out of receiving such communication on the site and within each such email we send you. You may inform us of any changes in your personal data and, in accordance with our obligations under the Data Protection Acts for 2018, we will update or delete your personal data accordingly. You have the right to request a copy of any personal data held by us about you. You also have the right to have such data corrected where it is inaccurate or misleading. Drogheda Chamber makes every effort to ensure your data is kept updated, however we do request that notification of changes in personnel and/or company details in writing.
