PRESIDENT'S NOTE

January, 2009

HAPPY NEW YEAR QUILTERS!!

Did everyone feel as though the year flew by? I certainly did. I hope that everyone had a great Christmas and Happy New Year. My family had a wonderful Christmas together. I finished my quilt from Robin Gallagher's "Slice and Dice" class, quilted it and gave it to my husband for Christmas. I figured that it was about time that I made a quilt for him. He loved it!

I hope that everyone enjoyed our Christmas party and table runner exchange. Thank you to all who participated in the exchange. We had quite a few ladies being able to enjoy a fun new quilted table runner. I know that I will definitely enjoy mine. It goes well in my dining room.

We welcome Vivs from Bear's Quilt Shop in January. He is coming to speak to us about the benefits of being involved in a Guild and to have a "Question and Answer" time on everything from the quilting world to owning a quilt shop. So come prepared to have your questions answered and to learn a lot. Then on Saturday, Vivs is coming to teach us how to Paper Piece. I know that there are quite a few of us signed up but there are still more spots so please check out the Workshops section in this wonderful newsletter and see Diane MacRill at the January 8th meeting next week to sign -up.

We have wonderful events and activities planned for the New Year. I hope that you will all find a place to participate.

Do you like to eat especially when you don't have to cook or better yet clean up? We have a fundraiser at Rubio's this month. All that is required is for you and anyone that you want to take to go to Rubio's, take a flyer (which will be available at the meeting) and eat lunch and/or dinner. Acacia will get 20% of our sales. What a great way to make money!! I hope that everyone will participate.

Thanks to my wonderful board and many volunteers to help make Acacia a wonderful Quilt Guild! Please let me know if you have any questions, concerns or ideas for Acacia.

Happy Quilting,
Karen Waterbury

Sunshine and Shadows
By Kim Hogan

Wow! A huge celebration is in order for Mary Hicks as she celebrated her 95th birthday on Dec. 23. Her passion for life should be an inspiration for all of us.

A hearty "Congratulations" goes out to Verda who celebrates the birth of her great-granddaughter and to Susan Mac Vicar on the birth of her granddaughter. So which one of these little girls will be the first to begin sewing treasures at grandma's

2009-- A Year of Trees, Birthstones and Flowers

To help create a personalized birthday quilt for someone special in your life, here is some information about people born in January! For example -Celtic birthday trees--

What Tree Did They Fall From?

Find their birthday and its corresponding tree. Then, see the meaning behind it below. Do you recognize your friend?

Dec 23 to Jan 01	Apple Tree
Jan 02 to Jan 11	Fir Tree
Jan 12 to Jan 24	Elm Tree
Jan 25 to Feb 03	Cypress Tree

APPLE TREE (the Love) - of slight build, lots of charm, appeal, and attraction, pleasant aura, flirtatious, adventurous, sensitive, always in love, wants to love and be loved, faithful and tender partner, very generous, scientific talents, lives for today, a carefree philosopher with imagination.

FIR TREE (the Mysterious) - extraordinary taste, dignity, sophisticated, loves anything beautiful, moody, stubborn, tends to egoism but cares for those close to them, rather modest, very ambitious, talented, industrious, discontented lover, many friends, many foes, very reliable.

side? The race is on ladies!
Kim

ELM TREE (the Noble-mindedness) - pleasant shape, tasteful clothes, modest demands, tends not to forgive mistakes, cheerful, likes to lead but not to obey, honest and faithful partner, likes making decisions for others, noble-minded, generous, good sense of humor, practical.

CYPRESS TREE (the Faithfulness) - strong, muscular, adaptable, takes what life has to give, content, optimistic, craves money and acknowledgment, hates loneliness, passionate lover which cannot be satisfied, faithful, quick-tempered, unruly, pedantic, and careless.

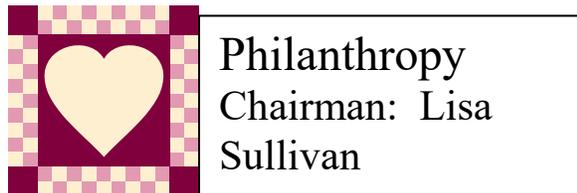

Month	Flower	Stone	Meaning	Colors
January	Carnation, Snowdrop	 Garnet, Emerald, Rose Quartz.	Loyalty, Constancy	Black, Dark Blue, Dark Red

January: The traditional birthstone associated with Capricorn is the garnet.

This deep red stone has a longstanding connection to the underworld. The Egyptians would put garnets in the tombs of the dead as payment for the deceased's passage into the next world. The garnet was also considered to be a strong deterrent against the evil eye. This stone is symbolic of an individual's willingness to serve others, but at the same time remain true to himself or herself. It is a stone of respect and responsibility, much like the traits of the sign of Capricorn.

The flower for January is the carnation.

This flower represents love, but not the deep love associated with the rose and carries an air of sophistication.

Welcome 2009!

A great "BIG THANK YOU" to all those who are participating in our Philanthropy efforts. If you could only see the big smiles on their faces when our delivery is coming into the shelter you would just be so inspired and humbled.

Our donation this time had: 19 Quilts--40 bags--30 stuffed animals--5 crocheted pillow-covers--3 boxes of cosmetics--4 boxes of school supplies and toys. Mona and I went to the shelter to deliver the items December 16th. Thank you Mona!

Also want to express to those who participate in the 'BLOCKS FOR THE BRAVE' -- we make a difference. I know that a quilt given to a soldier is a real inspiration and a great motivation to them that they are likely not to forget. (you all should have received an email with pictures and if you want a copy let me know).

Well now that we are making our commitments for 2009 lets get a commitment to PHILANTHROPY. I know that each of us, if we were asked, would say that one of the reasons we are a member of the guild is, in part, to have a forum for philanthropic donations, so lets make sure that we remember to commit (even just a little bit) of our special time and talent to give to those who need us and our talents.

We need:

1. Sewers to sew on the third Sat of the month (lets all get those calendars out and put down at least two or more 3rd Saturdays to come out and sew).
2. If cleaning your sewing room (or just lightening up the load) is on your list already please consider sending your UFO's or your "I am so past this phase" fabric to philanthropy to be finished and sent to our shelter.
3. We could use cotton batting anytime. I have about 40 kits ready to go that just need batting to be a complete kit.
4. Please take at least one kit and bring it back next meeting finished to be added to our drawing of great prizes (last give away we gave 2 workshops. Lucky Phyllis Victor and Donna Holley). Keep up the good work.
5. YOU!!! Yes we need you no matter what your skill level or limitations please call on me and together we will find your special talent to make Philanthropy 2009 the best it can be.

Happy New Year 2009

Opportunity Basket

The opportunity basket for the month of January's theme will be Bears! Come over and buy some tickets to support the guild. Tickets are 3 for one dollar. Free tickets are given to those who bring donations of fat quarters or other sewing or quilting items for the basket.

- February's theme will be red and white/hearts,
- April's theme will be Easter/spring,
- May's theme will be baby and juvenile,
- June's theme will be sewing.

For March and July there will be no basket because we will be having a brown bag those two months. I will accept donations for the basket for any theme any time.

December's lucky winner was Charlotte Hansen. Thank you for your donations and for buying tickets for the opportunity basket.

KENNEDY HIGH DONATIONS

Kennedy High received a serger as a donation. I am looking for a generous person to donate a little of their time and teach Ms. Vazquez and I how to use it. Your help would be greatly appreciated! Dana Matsukawa

Workshops
Submitted by:
Diane MacRill

From Diane MacRill, V.P. of Workshops:

Vivs from Bear's will be teaching a workshop on Paper Piecing on Saturday, January 10. If you have never tried paper piecing before, this is the perfect time to learn. Even if you have paper pieced, Vivs will have some hints that I am sure will help you with your next project. This looks like a pretty project to make, or you can just practice the techniques. You can still sign up at our meeting on January 8. I will have a supply list for you at that time. There is some prep work that needs to be done before the workshop.

PLEASE SUPPORT OUR LOCAL QUILT STORES!

Our local Quilt Shops are so supportive of our guild with their generous donations of each guild member would consider making a small

go a long way to keeping our

Dear fellow quilter,

My name is Deborah Segart and I have been a quilter for more than 25 years and the publisher of Down Under Quilts magazine for the past 9 years.

I am writing to share some good news with you. - Down Under Quilts is available digitally for FREE, including over a years worth of back issues.

All it takes is 30 seconds to subscribe at <http://subscriptions.creativelivingmedia.com.au> and the latest issue is sent immediately to your email address. I am sure you will find the monthly issues of Down Under Quilts enjoyable, insightful and fun.

An email that was sent from a member of online Australian group "scquilters" had this to say about Down Under Quilts:

*I have been meaning to tell you:
Your implementation of an online*

magazine is the best I have encountered anywhere - and I've looked at hundreds in many subjects. It's really easy to navigate, very friendly, very faithful to the print edition (and so is very familiar to the reader who is used to the print version). Well done to you all, and especially your online designer PS I'm a website manager in my other life.

Please do sign-up. Share the good news that Down Under Quilts is available FREE online with your guild members too, I am sure they will appreciate it.

In fact over 25% of our current readers are presently from the US and we hope to share our lovely magazine with even more US quilters.

If you have any questions please do get back to me.

Kind regards and happy quilting!
ps. if any of your friends or members are machine embroidery enthusiasts our Creative Expressions magazine with Jenny Haskins is also available.

Happy
New Year,
Secret
Pals

No, I haven't had too much of "the bubbly"! I just get confused. If it's New Years, how come we aren't starting all over with a new Secret Pal program?

Okay, I really do know the answer! Just playing with your heads! I know that Acacia has a year from July to June instead of January to December. I know we are fortunate to have a program that doesn't have to juggle Secret Pal special end of year gifts with the Holiday gifts you are working so hard to get together for family and friends.

So, what do we have to look forward to this next six months? I just finished typing up the calendar of "Other Holidays" for this issue and there are so many ways you can treat your Secret Pal and say Thank You that my mind is boggled! You can choose a "different" Holiday—like Groundhog Day or April Fool's Day—and prepare a gift collection around that! Okay, so I'm a little wacky tonight! But you guys are doing such a great job I know you will make each month special for your Secret Pal.

So Happy New Year, to all you Special Giving Ladies! And may you be truly blessed for your giving!

Sew -So-Much
 Chairman:
 Sharon Monge

Now that the Holidays are over and there is time to breathe, it seems like a great time to come to Sew-So-Much and work on something new and challenging.

Need ideas? Well at Sew-So-Much there are always plenty of quilters who will stimulate your imagination with suggestions—or just by seeing their works-in-progress.

We always accomplish a lot while we chat and work and munch. By going-home-time I am always surprised at how much I got done in just a few hours.

Come join us at the Bunney Hutch on January 23 from 10 am to 5 pm (bring a dish to share—if you wish!)

By the way, contrary to previous rumors, the Bunney Hutch has not been sold and is not going out of Business. We are still meeting there as usual! COME JOIN US!
