Aaradhna - Winter's End Tour @ The Cabana One of Aotearoa's foremost soul & R'n'B singers, Aaradhna, is embarking on a tour, giving Kiwi fans one last chance to see her live before she takes time out to write & record new music.

It's Aaradhna's most extensive tour of NZ in recent years & is aptly titled the 'Winter's End Tour', marking the end of an era and the start of the next chapter in her remarkable journey.

The award-winning Aaradhna is one of the country's most distinguished singer & songwriters. She's been a familiar face - & voice - in the local & international scene since featuring on Adeaze's chart-topping song 'Getting Stronger'. She went on to carve out her own path, releasing several critically acclaimed albums, including 2012's Treble & Reverb, which spawned the hits 'Wake Up' & 'Lorena Bobbit'.

She followed it with 2016's Brown Girl, which earned her the award for 'Best Female Solo Artist' at the NZ Music Awards & 4 awards at the 2017 Pacific Music Awards, including the 'Best Pacific Female Artist Award' & 'Best Pacific Music Album'.

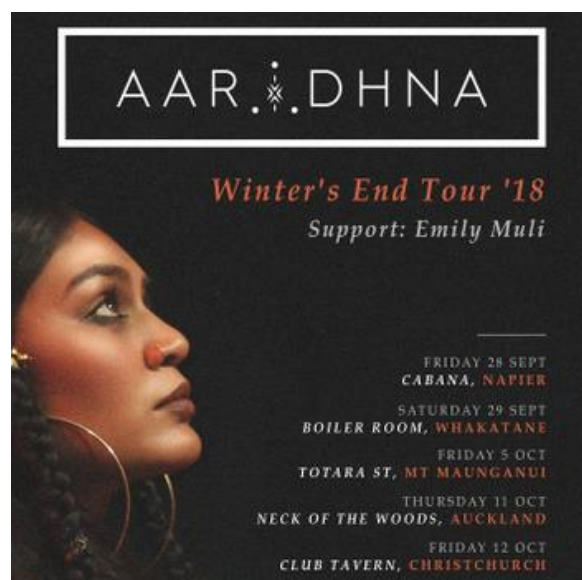

Joining Aaradhna is special guest & stunning soul singer, Emily Muli.

The Trouble with Memory

Professor Maryanne Garry of the NZ Institute of Security & Crime Science, Uni of Waikato will present a lecture on Memory.

Most people think memory is a faithful recorder & archiver of experience. But memory is a liar, a con artist, & a self-serving autobiographer. Memory causes trouble for us, & for others.

Yet without memory, we couldn't function, & our institutions would collapse. In this lecture, Professor Garry will present some of the science of memory, & talk about when & how memory causes trouble.

Maryanne Garry received her PhD in 1993 from the Uni of Connecticut, & did postdoctoral work at the Uni of Washington. In 1996 she moved to Victoria Uni of Wellington, where she worked for 20yrs before taking up a joint appointment in 2016 at the Uni of Waikato, as a Professor of Psychology & a Professor in the NZ Institute for Security & Crime Science (one of only two in the world) at The Uni of Waikato.

She studies a puzzle of memory: how is that otherwise intelligent, rational people can remember things they never really saw, or experiences they never really had? Over the years, she has amassed a solid body of theoretically-grounded applied research that helps us shed light on the causes & consequences of these false memories. Her work has been funded by granting agencies in the US, Japan, & in NZ, where she has been awarded four Marsden grants from the Royal Society.

Postmodern Jukebox

NZ loves Postmodern Jukebox! Following 3 successful tours in as many years, the multi-talented collective will bring their re-imagined contemporary pop, rock & R&B hits in the style of various yesteryears back to eagerly awaiting fans in 2018.

Each time around, PMJ looks forward to bringing their unique spin on modern pop hits & retro pop stylings to new cities for the 1st time, as well as revisiting favourite haunts that welcome them back with eagerly open arms. And as any PMJ fan can tell you, the experience is never the same twice, with new songs, new sounds, & new members added to the ever-growing family each time around.

Imagine marrying the 21st century party vibe of Miley Cyrus or the minimalist angst of Radiohead with the crackly warmth of a vintage 78 or the plunger-muted barrelhouse howl of a forgotten Kansas City jazzman. Bradlee's choice of material ranges from the '80s hard rock of Guns N' Roses to hits as recent as 2015's Justin Bieber plea "Sorry." They're rendered by a rotating cast of musicians & singers in fashions that date back to a time when Axl, Slash & Bieber's parents had yet to be born – a time of street corner harmonies & torch singers, blues belters & golden-voiced crooners.

Last year, PMJ collected 18 favourites to compile The Essentials for Concord Records. The album featured the songs that Bradlee has called "most essential to the PMJ universe," including hits by Beyoncé, the White Stripes, Lorde, Outkast and Maroon 5 – along with the song that put the band on the map, a vaudevillian distressing of Macklemore & Ryan Lewis' "Thrift Shop" fronted by Robyn Adele Anderson.

Free admission, $7.50 per 30 stems cash preferred

Fertile Ground - Humanity Painters (until 6 Oct)

The 70 adults Helen Kerridge tutors, collectively called the Humanity Painters, will be exhibiting about 300 paintings. Their annual show traditionally attracts more visitors than any other held at the arts centre.

The group's yearly exhibitions are gaining a lot of respect through consistently presenting high quality professional paintings at very affordable prices.

The artists come from throughout Hawke's Bay & are tutored by Napier's Helen Kerridge at weekly classes in a studio above Humanity Books on Karamu Road, Hastings. Humanity Painters are now regularly represented in awards, including the Adam Portraiture Award, Art Hawke's Bay Review, & East. They are also in the stables of galleries nationwide.

Hastings Community Arts Centre, Russell St South, Hastings
9.30am – 4.00pm (Mon – Fri), 10.00am – 2.00pm (Sat)

Satellite (until 7 Oct)

Satellite extends a conversation begun in Auckland between Rohan Hartley Mills, Krystina Kaza, & J.A. Kennedy. The grouping of these artists grew out of the Auckland-based exhibitions at IWT Project Space, & at State Gallery.

This particular iteration sees a series of works across multiple disciplines including painting, mixed media installation & sculpture.

For further info email hello@thisisspace.co.nz or call Megan on 021 500340.

Jo Bloggs & Fane Flaws (4 - 31 Oct)

Constraints are the life blood of creativity, & Jo Bloggs has used this to good effect, restricting herself to a budget of just $20 & giving herself 2 months to create 200 small paintings of dahlias. Bloggs has managed to pull this off using mostly found materials & "op shop" bargains, a testament to her imagination & resourcefulness.

Fane Flaws, rather than focussing on the flowers per se, has taken his sophisticated graphic style with a passing nod to cubism, to explore the theme of flowers & see where it takes him.

Witty & wonderful... the exhibition is brimming with possibilities & guaranteed to delight.

Muse Art, 5 Havelock Rd, Havelock North

10.00am – 4.30pm (Mon – Sat), 10.00am – 2.00pm (Sun)

East 2018 (until 11 November)

This year Hastings City Art Gallery is again hosting the successful EAST biennial exhibition, which is curated by visionary freelance curator & arts writer, Bruce E. Phillips. Selected artists are: Vanessa Arthur, Annette Bull, John Brown, Joyce Campbell, Terri Ripeka Crawford, Jenny Gillam, Ayesha Green, Kauri Hawkins, Michael Hawksworth, Rangituhia Hollis, Peter Madden, George Nuku, Ben Pearce, Martin Poppelwell, Clare Plug, Sonya Lacey, Lara Lindsay Parker, Jacob Scott, Ann Shelton, Natalie Robertson, Tim Thatcher, David Trubridge & Kamaka Pottery (Bruce & Estelle Martin).

Hastings City Art Gallery, Eastbourne St, Hastings

10.00am – 4.30pm

Tēnei Tōnu Exhibition (until 21 Dec)

This stunning exhibition features a broad range of historic & contemporary taonga from the collection of the Hawke's Bay Museums Trust, Ruawharo Ta-u-rangi. Translated as 'always here', Tēnei Tōnu shares diverse stories of local Iwi Ngāti Kahungunu & their enduring connection to the land.

Ten taonga riri (weapons) have recently come out of storage & are on now on display - some have not been exhibited for over 100yrs'. They are representative of the nearly 200 taiaha & tewhatewha held in the collection, ranging from pre-contact through to the 1940s they show a variety of styles & materials.

One of the items on display is a beautiful whale-bone taiaha, & if you look closely you will see one eye has been rimmed with red wax & the other with paua - making for an unusual finished look.

MTG Hawkes Bay, 2 Tennyson St, Napier

9.30am – 5.00pm
