9th grade english literature textbook pdf

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED! Finally, I purchased and posted a new access code for the 2012-13 school year. Please go ahead and sign up for your personal access to our online tutorial. Here's our Prentice Hall tutorial for this course. During the construction phase of the Chamblee, the ninth graders will not have lockers for storing textbooks. Consequently, some 9th grade teachers have decided that we will not issue textbooks to take home if there are special circumstances (a parent request is required). When you have assigned homework from the tutorial, you will open my site and return to the link on this page. You only need to register once. But you will need to log in with your individual username and password every time you re-open your online tutorial. So, after signing up, make sure you print out or store your username and password where you can find it again. Here's a link to the online edition of our Class 9 Prentice Hall Literature tutorial: 2. Bring (cut and paste) the next class access code to the access code field. Class access code: 254C2977EB0FB256FE8B 3. Create your own username and password (please don't use your full name as a username). 4. Save your username and password in a place where you can find it again. You will need it every time you return to use an online tutorial. Keep it in your cell phone, on your agenda, or in your main notebook. Student Name: Username: Password In order to continue to use our website, we ask you to confirm your identity as a person. Thank you so much for your cooperation.
