Art Installations

Shadows under the sea and in the forest.

Artist: Andrea Fritz

Shadows under the Sea and In The Forest will consist of two tent canopies set up together. White sheets would be attached all the way around creating a shroud on which we will attach silhouettes of creatures.

There is an entrance for people to enter the tents and they can create their own 1'x1' creatures to attach to the sheets. One side will feature an underwater scene and the other side with a forest theme.

At night the display will be lit up from the inside and create a beautiful light display.

Mirrors

Artist: Mike Golder

See yourself in a new perspective! Mike Golder's mirrors offer a fun interactive experience that plays with light and reflections

Selected Paintings and Parade puppets: Kit Kat and Lolly Pup

Artist: Shelley Elley

Shelley is one of our returning artists. This time it's small canvases, mini shrines and collage. She will create a structure to display them on under a 10x10 canopy. She'll also be bringing some of her past works, including her Upstyle Stacks and the giant parade puppets Kit Kat and Lolly Pup!

The Playground Girl

Artist: Julia Nunez-Eguiguren

Julia's work consists of carefully curated items and AI generated images arranged to convey the world from the point of view of this little girl, who she calls the Playground Girl.

Out There Art Festival

Little Tower of Turbulent Wonder

Artist: Doug Williscroft

The Little Tower of Turbulent Wonder is stand-alone structure about 5ft high with a 30 inch square footprint. The turbulent wonder is an internally-lit hypnotic swirl of rheoscopic fluid that mesmerizes the conscious mind while captivating non-conscious mind.

Charlart Painting

Artist: Charlotte Friend

Charlotte's paintings are either the whimsy of her imagination, or lately, the product of a collaboration with a local photographer. Her installation primarily features her paintings, but it's important to her that everyone gets to see the artist within themselves. She'll be hosting a drawing station for children, whose art will be displayed on the fence after each day.

Water Rabbits and Downpouring Abound

Artist: Ann K Chou

Crafted meticulously, three lantern rabbits stand, Using sumi-paper mache' technique, designed by hand. Repurposed materials bring them to life, recycled plastic and calligraphy-practice paper, rife.

Illumination provided by LED candles or push-button LED lights, Ensuring their radiance throughout the nights. To shield the lanterns, clear umbrellas we'll install, Symbolizing water elements, standing tall. And if our installation finds a home near a tree, Plastic pop bottle strips will sway, you'll see. Representing raindrops, falling with grace, Completing the ambiance of this watery space.

Cat's Cradle (Giant Hands)

Artist: Jenn Neilson

Giant hands bookend a huge 4-player game of Cat's Cradle. Bring your friends, and revisit this childhood favourite!

Live painting with

Artist: Alexander Taylor-McCallum

Alex is a mural artist and painter who within the past 7 years has primarily worked with the medium of spray paint which I blend with traditional native art/formline. He'll be doing live painting so people can witness his process and have this piece be centred around healing from intergenerational trauma caused by effects of colonization. The piece will later be auctioned off as a fundraiser for a local organization that does outreach work for our local indigenous communities.

Live Painting

Artist: Kerrilynn Noble

Kerrilynn specializes in blacklight painting and creating immersive experiences. We can't wait to see what she has in store for us!

Puzzle Station

Artist: Puzzle Lab

Generously donated by Puzzle Lab, these unique laser cut foam puzzles are a joy to put together. Check it out in the chill zone!

Telepede and Registroid

Artist: Scott Amos

Scott Amos is well known for his interactive musical installations that light up and respond with musical cues to being interacted with. Scott's carefully curated selection of beats and loops allows the passerby to create original songs and music without any training or skill with an instrument.
