Cultivating Your Most Important Relationship

There is a relationship that can change everything! It is one connection that carries over into every relationship and everything you do. And rarely is it taught.

Join Michelle Markquart as she dives deep into the one thing that will massively impact you and the world around you. Michelle says that it was a game changer for her, and it will be for you as well.

After a long and painful journey through substance abuse and treatment, Michelle has successfully created a better life and is now helping others achieve recovery and hope through the Eau Claire Sober Living facility.

Join us for an informative and encouraging message.

Eau Claire Sober Living

Eau Claire Sober Living (ECSL) is a substance-free, live-in community, that provides a safe and supportive environment for those seeking recovery. ECSL guides its residents through transformation, borne from a neuroscience-based recovery model, connection, healthy-living, and renewed self-awareness.

Regardless of the addictive behavior ECSL can help. We do not believe that a one-size-fits-all recovery paradigm addresses everyone's needs. ECSL works with you to create a specialized program of transformation and recovery within our sober living communities.

ECSL knows that healing takes a community, shared experience, and common goals to create a lifestyle that supports a lifetime of recovery.
