Biodata for Marriage for Girl Biodata format for marriage - Working girl from a traditional family If you like a sample of biodata, we just made it easy for you to copy transcripts for about yourself and waiting sections. Make sure you change it for your own biodata. I am a small, cheerful person with a happy and satisfied life. I currently work at IBM in Bangalore as a senior data analyst. I love to draw and you will find some of my paintings adorning the walls of several offices in Bangalore! I use my paintings to shed light on the beauty of nature around us. My parents tell me that I am very comfortable when it comes to taking on housework. Actually, I like decorating my house, but I'm also a stickler for cleanliness. I love spending time with my family and having a great circle of friends as well. Expecting a partner I am looking for a tall and handsome professional based from Bangalore. He needs to have a full career and should be able to support my career as well. I travel from time to time and I hope to find someone who will be available to spend time with me. I prefer teetotaler. Smoking is also a strict no-no. I have a modern outlook on life, but I believe in traditional values such as respecting parents and helping those in need. I'm willing to change my mind if you can convince me and you have to be open about your opinion as well. Why do we love this biodata format? This biodata format for marriage achieves two important goals that most of us ignore - one. The layout and organization of the content do not make it look like another job resume format. 2. The biodata format highlights all the key information and photography to ensure a quick overview of the document. Biodata format for marriage - Businessman, parents no more If you like a sample marriage biodata, just copy the transcripts for about yourself and waiting sections. Make sure you change it according to your personal situation. About myself I am a self-made person who has gone through a lot of problems in life. I am currently MD Sethi Export and Import, Mumbai. I rely on yoga to maintain balance in my life and cope with my work pressures. I end up traveling a lot to meet my clients. I love the surprises that arise on my travels and love meeting people from different cultures and backgrounds. I believe that there is much to learn from this world and to have a deep sense of Reading is another passion that I pursue whenever I have time. Keeping up with politics, economics, social issues and culture keep me charged. Partner expectations I am looking to marry a career-oriented, Hindu girl who is financially independent, military, and has a strong network of family and friends. Caste does not matter to me and I am a teetotaler and non-smoker and therefore expect the women I marry to evaluate my preferences. My business requires me to spend more than 6 months of the year traveling outside India. The ability to lead an independent life while I am away is a key requirement. I am based in Mumbai and I prefer to marry someone from Mumbai or Pune. I don't believe in a horoscope match. However, I can send my horoscope if necessary. Why do we love this sample of biodata marriage? This biodata sample has exceptionally well-written expectations of partners. The boy clearly reveals the fact that he travels a lot and therefore expects that his future wife will be career oriented and be able to lead an independent life during his absence. 3 Light biodata formats with stunning design Creating attractive marriage biodata is no longer difficult! Use our simple premium templates to quickly add your information and download PDF biodata. 3 Simple Biodata templates are available for printing or download! 3. Marriage Biodata Sample for Disabled Biodata Format for Marriage - Handicapped Boy Living With Parents Just copy transcripts for about himself and partner waiting sections from this sample and use it for your own biodata for marriage. I am a 25-year-old man from the conservative Arora family in Amritsar. I lost my legs in a traffic accident five years ago. I go through a lot of struggles as I went through physical rehabilitation and adapting to my new lifestyle on wheels! My pretty bad experience has a silver lining as well. My view of life and what we take for granted has completely changed, and now I am much more confident and determined in my pursuits. I live every day as if this is my last day on earth and enjoy life to the fullest. I am financially independent and successfully work with corporate training and consulting business from home. My family and friends were my pillar of support. Preference partner I am looking for an educated woman who has an independent career of her own. I'm looking for someone who can see for the fact that I'm tied to my wheelchair. Growth (or any other physical disability) certainly doesn't matter to me :). While I've grown up to cope with all that life can throw at me, I'm looking for a companion who wouldn't mind giving a helping hand when I'm outside. It would be great to marry someone who is up to contact with the physical or subjected to their way of life. Someone with a great sense of humor, having experienced adversity and and them in the past would probably be able to assess my point of view better. Why do we love this biodata marriage? Handicapped people face two problems in marriage by arrangement. First of all, their self-esteem has already taken a beating and they are defined by their disabilities. The second problem is that their opportunities for looking for a promising match are limited (for all practical purposes) for other men or women with physical disabilities. In some cases, women from economically weaker countries will marry a disabled man because of their personal situation. This biodata sample reveals a person's identity without resorting to the use of phrases that demonstrate self-pity or defense. Want more answers for your biodata marriage? These 5 simple tips can make people want to talk to you! Watch this short video. 4. Marriage biodata sample for software engineer Biodata format for marriage - software engineer who loves to travel We made it easy for you to use the contents of this sample marriage biodata. Copy the transcript below and make it your own. Originally from Hyderabad, I have lived in Chennai for more than 10 years. I am 6 feet tall and moderately built. My obsession with fitness helps me in keeping my fat at bay! My work as a software engineer has made me a patient person and improved my negotiating skills! My work also keeps me on my toes as I always try to learn new skills to keep up with the changing landscape of technology. I especially appreciate the humor, the ability to laugh at myself, the ability to communicate, respect for culture, health and freedom to think outside the box. About my match I'm looking for a killer smile and a spark in her eyes. I'm tall, so you have to be at least 5 feet 5 inches tall. My future wife should enjoy the journey with me as I follow the Indian cricket team everywhere! This can be said that you should know the difference between a point and a ravine. My intended match is to be a nature lover and enjoy life in a secluded house that is far from the hustle and bustle of the city. Why do we love this biodata format? In this biodata sample you will notice that the boy has named all his likes and dislikes clearly not only in the waiting section, but also in the section about himself. The highlight of these biodata is the fact that your expectations and interests are directly related to the person reading your biodata. The challenge of how your lifestyle can change or affect a person's lifestyle that you are about to get married is something we can learn. Biodata format for marriage - Divorced girl Copy and reuse written descriptions for this sample of marriage biodata. I am an outgoing person about myself, and I believe in making a difference to those around me. I run my own an organization that provides victims of domestic violence so that they can lead independent lives. I started this initiative as I went through a short marriage that ended in divorce. Although I had the tools and resources to get back on track, I was touched by the plight of countless other women around me who were trapped in abusive marriages. I also dabble in painting and I am currently taking painting lessons to develop my skills. Both painting and my social activity give me many opportunities to express myself. The description of a partner is religion or caste does not matter to me. However, I am looking for someone who respects women, is not too selfish, and the ability to empathize with others. Having a great sense of humor and not taking yourself too seriously will be a definite plus. I expect the person I'm marrying to be a non-smoker. Social drinking is acceptable. Career oriented still with a sense of responsibility towards family traits that I appreciate a lot in the person I plan to marry. Divorced without children is fine. Why do we love this sample of marital biodata? While second marriages are definitely on the rise in India, women as well as men tend to get defensive about why they divorced while writing their biodata for marriage. In this example, you will notice that the girl confidently highlighted the positive result that came out of her divorce. Marriage biodata format for Muslim girl Biodata format for marriage - Muslim girl go ahead, copy and use descriptions below to create their biodata for marriage. I am a simple person with a positive attitude to life. I am a simple, to put it mildly, respectful, educated person with the right combination of modern and traditional cultures. I am God-fearing and read the Koran every day and perform Namaz five times a day. I am an artist who is passionate about Islamic art and calligraphy. I created fonts based on Islamic art and I am currently working as a freelance graphic designer for several e-commerce brands. I love good food and I also splash around in cooking when I get a chance at home. Prefer a partner I am looking for someone who can be a true friend for life. He must be calm, understanding, caring, loving and at least moderately religious. Although I believe in Allah, I expect my partner will have an open mind to mingle with people from other religions and backgrounds. My ideal match would be someone who is successful in his career, well settled and has a positive outlook on life even when going gets tough. Why do we love this sample of biodata marriage? Notice how The Muslim girl deftly managed to incorporate details about her religious faith without sounding too traditional. She indicated how many times she performed Namaz, her Umrah and Hajj trips, and left her decision hijab after marriage. Biodata format for marriage - Christian girl Go Ahead, copy and use descriptions below to create their biodata for marriage. I am a God-fearing, devout Christian with a positive outlook on life. I take every day as he comes and believes that God has a plan for each of us and we need to be patient with his plan to unfold. I believe in respect for the elders and love the religious as well as the cultural traditions of our family. Although I am Tamil, I have lived all my life in New Delhi and I am free to speak Hindi. I have a degree in management from the Indian Institute of Management, Kozhikode, and I work at IT-MNC in New Delhi. I have progressed well in my career and will continue with it after marriage. The expectations of a partner that I am looking for a God-fearing, honest Roman Catholic Christian. Someone from the same caste would be preferable. He must be caring, hardworking and have old-fashioned values such as respect for elders, chivalry and a deep sense of responsibility to be a torchbearer of religion and culture. Anyone who has a successful career, a good education and a teetotaler would be the perfect match. Why do we love this template for marriage biodata? This biodata format for marriage is an example of how a Christian girl projects her beliefs and value systems while at the same time balancing with a modern lifestyle. She shouts lifestyle choices and expectations very clearly including unusual choices such as choosing to be a vegetarian lifestyle when her family is not a vegetarian. Your biodata for marriage must be impressive, and for that, you need a marital biodata format that is professional and comprehensive! The traditional biodata format for marriage is useless! The first step in any arranged marriage is to create a biodata marriage or biodata for marriage. Marriage data will be useful in the following scenarios: Parents can distribute a printed copy of the marriage biodata to family and friends. People who express interest through online marriage expect to see marriage biodata before starting a conversation or marriage first encounter. But, the problem is finding the right format for your biodata marriage. The term marriage marriage The format seems to be very popular. On average, there are over 2,000 searches each month for the marriage biodreath format, as you can see below. Despite the high demand for the marriage biodata format, the options available on the Internet do not meet the requirements. Here are a few reasons why: Here are a few reasons why biodata formats for marriage available elsewhere are inadequate! Most marriage biodata formats available online resemble work resumes. They are devoid of any character (in other words, design) and boring! If you use the generic marriage biodata format, you end up doing your best to hide your identity and make yourself part of the mob of marriage biodata that people use. Focusing only on the unseuited facts with the aim of a shortlist promising a match and then sharing more details is a great idea. The only problem is that it is a huge waste of your time and invariably sets you up for disappointment. You will realize that when you meet a short match, they will not meet your expectations or vice versa! Not having a custom biodata for marriage makes you a great candidate for outright rejection. Would you buy soap wrapped in white paper and have no label on it? Here's what you'll see when you're looking for a marriage biodata format! If you look closely, you'll fall asleep! That's why we believe that not having the proper format of biodata marriage is a lost opportunity for: By appearing out of the crowd - differentiate yourself by sharing a marriage biodata form that is vastly different from what others normally use. Making a great first impression - Scientists have found that people form an impression in 1/10th of a second. Use the attractive marriage biodata format to get noticed and most importantly get more answers from potential matches. Interaction with the right matches - Use the right marriage biodata format to share all the information needed to weed out responses from people who may not be fit. There is no point in wasting time on people who can't live up to your expectations or vice versa. We have lined up the best tips for coming up with attractive marriage biodata. 1. Choose the right template for biodata for marriage Yes, there are different ways of presenting yourself through your marriage biodata. It depends on what information you want to project. If you choose the wrong biodata model for marriage, you end up discounting everything you value. 2. Spelling and Grammar Use tools such as Grammarly (their free version is good enough) when writing marriage biodata. Grammatical errors and spelling errors can get your marriage biodata straight into the bin. Jodie Lonick Offers Biodata for Marriage In English. However, Word has free biodata templates for those who prefer Tamil or Hindi languages. 3. About Yourself Writing About Yourself probably the most important section in any marriage biodata format. Write about your personality, lifestyle, interests, talents, aspirations and hobbies to name a few. Listing a hobby in a married biodata for the sake of listing them is not good. Provide specific examples or details, such as the title of your favorite book you have listed reading as a hobby. Click here to read 7 about yourself samples for your biodata for Marriage Watch this video to learn how to write about yourself for marriage biodata in 6 simple steps. 4. Pay attention to your profile picture before you take your profile photo, log on to as many marriage sites as possible, and a short list of profile pictures that you find attractive. Now look for cues from these photos such as dress, makeup, hairstyle, degree of your smile, size photos, background to name a few. Try to reproduce these elements in a photo. Research has shown that a slight tilt of the head and a genuine smile makes your biodata for marriage more attractive! Read our in-depth article about taking an attractive marital profile picture. This article has video demos and expert tips that you wouldn't want to miss. Click here to read the article. Being honest and sincere in expressing expectations through your biodata for marriage is a good way to check people who don't meet your expectations. Please do not list only your antipathies, but do not shy away from listing the undeniable (e.g. smoking, drinking alcohol). Watch this short video with step-by-step instructions for writing a partner's expectations. 6. Calling confidential information If you are divorced, have a physical disability or any other sensitive information that you believe will help others quickly decide if they want to have the next round of conversation, please be sure to name it in your marriage biodata. 7. Horoscope, if you believe in astrology and horoscope match, include basic information such as your star of birth, subsections, place and time of birth. A detailed horoscope can be exchanged if there is a preliminary match and interest. Also, call if you are Manglik or not. 8. Skin color Although it is normal to include height and body type (lean, medium built, toned to name a few), do not include skin color and stay away from the wheat complexion as you only reinforce racism and stereotypes! In short, avoid mentioning the person in the biodata of marriage. Let your profile picture speak for itself. 9. Salary or Money Steer away from your salary or your bank balance in your marriage biodata. You don't want potential matches to place too much importance on your bank balance, and marriages should for the right reasons. 10. Add a profile headline If you're wondering what a headline should mean, it's actually not hard. When you create your resume for marriage, not just a couple of paragraphs about yourself, try also including a headline that sums up who you are. Here are a few examples: An enterprising and active professional dancer who likes to cook the whole point of writing a proper headline for your biodata for marriage, to let the reader stop and read more about you and thus see your profile photo for a longer period! 11. Your family Although it is normal to list the names and professions of your parents, keep in mind that this is your marriage biodata rather than the family biodata for marriage! Listing Gory details about your parents and grandparents doesn't really matter at this stage of the marriage by arrangement. Looking - About My Family Description for Family for Family?
